State Officials To Attend Meeting

A number of prominent state officials will be presented at the Federated Sportsmen's banquet on October 28 at Dutch Town and Country, Vintage, Pa.
 Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, secretary of the Department of Forests and Waters, will be principal speaker, and other guests will include Glenn L. Bowers, newly appointed director of the Game Commission, Robert J. Bielo, executive director of the Fish Commission, and members of their organizations.
 This will probably be the last official meeting at which Federation President Robert Fasnacht will preside. He served the organization as secretary for 15 years, and is completing four years as president. Under his guidance the organization has worked on many projects and much has been accomplished for conservation, hunting and fishing.
 A. Warren Lichty is chairman, and Clayton B. Shenk is co-chairman for the event.
