

THE CAYUGA COUNTY Farm, Home & 4-H Center is one of more than two dozen such centers in New York state. This center was built four and one-half year ago, and reportedly hasn't had an idle moment since. It housed nearly 600 meetings last year.

A Farm & Home Center Is An Investment In Your Community Speaker Says At F & H Meeting

Speaking to approximately 120 persons gathered at Hostetter's Banquet Hall in Mount Joy Tuesday night for the annual meeting of the Lancaster County Farm & Home Foundation, Harold B Sweet said that any county as agriculturally prominent as Lancaster deserves to have adequate facilities to serve its farmers.

State assistant 4-H Club Leader marveled He inferred there could be no question that the county not only deserved, but needed, a modern Farm & Home Center.

As the New York extension agent showed the audience a series of slides depicting some of the Centers in his state, he said that a centrally-located Center becomes an asset to the whole community. It provides a place for all types of meetings, when not busy with agricultural and homemaking affairs; it

(Continued on Page 5)

Lancaster County Poultry Assn. Sets Annual Meeting For Feb. 3

The Lancaster County Poultry Association announced this week that its thirty-first annual meeting will be held Thursday, February 3, at 7:30 p.m., at the Farm Credit Building, 411 West Roseville Road, Lancaster.

In addition to the regular business meeting, members will elect directors for 1966. There will also be some changes made in the Association's By-Laws

Following these regular items of annual business pictures will be shown and light refreshments will be served

All members of the Poultry Association are urged to attend this meeting, and to participate in guiding and supporting their organization through the coming year.

County FFA Meeting Rescheduled For 31st

The Red Rose Chapter of Future Farmers of America meeting originally set for last Monday has been rescheduled for Monday, January 31, at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting, which will be held in the vocational agriculture room at the Warwick Union High School, will feature installation of officers for 1966.

The program will also be highlighted by conferring of Red Rose Degrees upon 45 county FFA members.

Lancaster County Swine Producers Assn. Schedules Spring Activities

NEW HOG HOUSING

A meeting will be held on February 1 to discuss new innovations in hog housing systems — from farrowing through finishing Area farmers appearing on the program will discuss their housing experiences. They are: Herbert Shuck, Kutztown; Abram Zeiset and John Zeiset, East Earl; Norman Martin, Myerstown; and Irwin Martin, Lincoln.

Dwight Younkin and Lester Burdette, Penn State livestock extension specialists, will also be on hand to field any technical questions on management and housing. The meeting will be held at 8 p.m. at the Lancaster County Farm Credit Building, 411 West Roseville (Continued on Page 7)

Crop Mgt. And Fertilizer Talk Heard By 200

Approximately 200 area farmers and friends attended a supper meeting at the Blue Ball Fire Hall last week sponsored by Agrico Chemical Co in cooperation with the DuPont Co and Doebler Pennsylvania Hybrids.

Following a supper served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Blue Ball Fire Co, Paul Spencer, agronomist with Agrico, gave a slide-illustrated talk on soil and crop management

He was followed by the DuPont representative who discussed the benefits of weed control for better corn yields

Slides illustrating good management practices for top (Continued on Page 7)

Farm Calendar

January 31 — 7:30 p.m., County FFA Chapter meets at Warwick Union High School agriculture room
— 7:30 p.m., Lancaster County SWCD directors meet at Lancaster County Planning Commission office, 900 East King St., Lancaster.

— 7:30 p.m., Ephrata Adult Farm Welding Class at Ephrata High School.

February 1 — 4:30 p.m., Lancaster County Vocational (Continued on Page 7)

RURAL FREE DELIVERY — Snow and Mail. We hope the postman missed reading our weather forecast last weekend as he fought his white way to your waiting mailbox. Sorry about that! If you really want to read this week's forecast, you'll have to hunt for it. It's hidden somewhere inside.

L. F. Photo