VOL. 11 NO. 20

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, April 16, 1966

$2 Per Year

TOP COUNTY FFA PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE TEAM is from the Grassland Chapter. The team will meet York County parliamentarians next week Eden Road, Lancaster The Members Will for the area title. The members above are, left to right, seated: Mike Smucker, historic homestead dates from Galen Yoder, Kenneth Weber, Larry Burkhart, standing: Larry Groff, Douglas about 1781, Eric said, adding Houck, Clair Bowman, Richard Hersh, and Robert Esbenshade.

Grassland FFA & Larry Herr Win Co. Procedure & Speaking Meet

Parliamentarian Rule

The Grassland Chapter of "A slow, deliberate, very School is preliminary to the Penn Manor High School district and state meets Grass-

Penn Manor High School to farm on Penn Grant Road decide the area title. The The runnerup speaking title (Continued on Page 8)

Farm Calendar

April 19 - 930 am, 2nd an-Cathedral, Harrisburg.

-130 and 7.30 p m., (dupli-Cale meetings) First-year Ilome Economics Clothing Club Leaders at UGI meeting 100m, Conestoga St., Lan-

April 20 — 130 pm., County FFA milk judging contest at Ephrata High School.

-130 pm, Area FFA land jud_ing contest at Isaac Geib farm, Manheim

April 21 — 8 am, Lancaster County Holstein Assn. tour Buses leaves from Conestoga Tidnsportation Co., E. Chestnut St, Lancaster.

- 9 30 a.m., Animal Health (Continued on Page 8)

Champs Continue Co. Larry Herr Rated Best Individual Speaker

Future Farmers of America sincere delivery, and a good continued its domination of stage voice" was the way county competition in parlia- public speaking judge John mentary procedures Tuesday Myers described Larry Herr's night by topping teams from winning performance in the County Agent four other county schools The county FFA public speaking meet held at Penn Manor High contest held Tuesday night at in the Livestock Exchange

Sixteen-year-old Herr, land was the state champion sophomore at Lampeter-Stras- tauves of the Livestock Exin 1964 and lunnerup in 1965, burg High School, spoke on change and the Union Stock and are now making a bid for the farmer as a member of Yards Co Lester Burdette another district and state title "The Exploited Occupa- and Frank Bortz from Penn tion". It was his first perfor- State will also be on hand to Glassland and the runnerup mance as a public speaker, help the Dauphin, Chester, county chapter, Solanco, will Larry is the son of Mr. and Northampton and Lancaster meet winnels from York Coun- Mrs Carl B Herr who operate County leaders and workers the next Thursday night at a beef cattle, poultry and corn plan for the annual big winner in that event will rep- went to Richard Thomas, Manlesent the district in Region or Chapter who spoke on Il competition at Millersville "World Without Hunger", a topic dealing with the population explosion and the growing need for food.

Third place went to Merlin E Snader, Grassland Chapter for his handling of the topic "The Peace Corps In Action". nual Governor's Agricultural Fourth was Donald Hershey, Contenence at Scottish Rites Elizabethtown Chapter, who (Continued on Page 12)

Weather Forecast

Continuing below-normal temperatures can be expected for the next several days. Seasonal weather is promised for the weekend with cooler temperatures prevailing thereafter. Normal for this time of year would be temperatures averaging within a range of 63 to 40 degrees.

Little precipitation is expected with showers about Monday night or Tuesday yielding one-tenth inch, or

Beef Club Leaders To Hold Planning Session

held on April 26, at 8 pm, which holds the greatest in-Show and Sale, according to search career after visiting the M M Smith, Lantaster laboratories, and talking with

The meeting, to be held \3 Room at the Lancaster Stock a Yards, will include represenevent, Smith said.

Soil Stewardship Week Plans Set At SWCD Meet.

The directors of the Lancaster County Soil and Water Conservation District announced plans at their regular monthly meeting Monday night at the Court House to observe Soil Stewardship Week, May 15-22

The directors said they will have kits available for any minister in the county wanting church bulletins or material applicable for use in Rogation Sunday sermons Anyone interested is advised to contact one of the directors.

(Continued on Page 9)

Outstanding 4-H'er, Eric Stoner, Plans Career In Agricultural Research

there will be three Stoner sylvania Department of Agribrothers enrolled at Penn culture building in Harrisburg. State University The oldest The tour of those facilities will be approaching gradua- last year was part of the protion in the field of agricultural gram involving outstanding 4-H engineering, the second oldest youngsters representing their will be a senior in electrical respective counties at the anengineering, and the youngest, nual 4-H Capital Days Eric, will be beginning the An active 4H member for long academic trail which he the past eight years, Eric has hopes will lead to a career in held nearly every top office in some phase of agricultural re- both the Lititz-Manheim Club

Presently, Eric is an eigh-cuirently vice-president of the teen-year-old senior at Man- (Continued on Page 6) heim Township High School. He lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs Raymond Stoner, on the 106-acre family farm on that a new highway may short-L. F. Photo ly cut through the Stoner acres, which already are nearbeet club leaders will be to be the area of agriculture

Miss Hershey a east District 4-H Baby Beef trigued with the idea of a re-

For one term next Fall researchers, at the new Penn-and the Wildlife Club He is

Two County 4-H Attend Conf.

Two Lancaster County 4-H. 'ers, Gloria Heishey of New ly surrouned by new apart-Holland, and Kenneth Rutt ment and dwelling constructof Quarryville R2, have been of Quarryville R2, have been selected to attend the two-When Eric enrolls in the day, State 4-H Capital Days tension workers and 4-H

Miss Hershey and Rutt. copresidents of the 4JH Counto plan for the 1966 South- terest for him He became in- ty Council, will have the opportunity to turther their (Continued on Page 12)

SURROUNDED BY HIS HANDIWORK Eric Stoner course long range conserva- poses in front of the huge colonial fireplace in the tion plans should follow in family kitchen of the Stoner farmhouse. The gourds he Lancaster County, the plans is holding were fashioned into bird houses. On the adapted by other counties mantle a small, stuffed woodchuck and a cock pheawere reviewed by the direc- sant regard each other warily beneath Eric's homemade gun rack. L. F. Photo