VOL 11 NO. 34

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, July 23, 1966

$2 Per Year

Plowing Contest Shapes Up As A "Duel Of Champions"

Next Tuesday's contour plow- rector Forney Longenecker

Hey Kids! I'm Yours - If You Catch Me!

Elmer Good, Lititz R1, says this year In addition, Good contouring said, they're going to give the (Continued on Page 6)

THIS 50-POUND GILT can be yours, if you can catch him next Tuesday afternoon, says Elmer Good, SWCD associate Chase prize. L F Photo

Farm Calendar

July 26 — 8 a m, County FFA Hog Show, at Lancaster Stock Yards

(Continued on Page 4)

ing contest on the Isaac Geib Richard Groff, Lititz R3, the Chapter made final plans for and their families turned out for August 4th at the Route farm at Manheim R3 is shap- last of the level-land cham- their annual summer picnic in force Tuesday evening for 230 By-Pass location A chicken ing into a king-sized affair pions, has now tossed his hat and softball game playoffs at the Atlantic Breeders Coopera- bai becue will be served from with a new entry this week into the ring This will be the the regular county meeting tive "Twilight Meeting" de- 11 am to 1 pm, Emig said, swelling the contestant total first competitive plowing on held Monday night at Manheim spite a thunder storm threat with tickets costing $1 to eight, according to Lancas- the contour for Groff, but he Central High School ter County Soil & Water Con- will be in their challenging. The affair, scheduled for the ed into real rain in the bone height and weight judging conservation District associate dr last year's champion Marvin 16th of August, will be held dry Lancaster area el-land event He retained per-followed by a five-inning soft- ry Roth, sire analyst and ABC he has a real runnin' pig lined up for the conservation district's Field Day Pig Chase was discontinued in favor of ern and southern parts of the each outstanding sire as he

(Continued on Page 6)

State Yorkshire Assn. To Hold Sale And Show

planned for August 4 and 5 by the Pennsylvania Yorkshire Cooperative Association, Inc, at the Guernsey Sales Pavilion, Route 30 East, Lancaster

At 9.30 am. on the first day a certified litter contest will be featured This will be followed at about 10 30 by a County 4-H'ers Junior and Senior live evaluation contest Prizes in this Off To Nation's event will total $170

During the afternoon of the Capital first day, Penn State extension specialists will discuss fitting and showing, pedigiee from Lancaster County will selections, housing and rations, be part of a 39 member deleand genetic basis for selection gation from 13 Southeastein of breeding animals.

ning at 1 pm, there will be National 4-H Center in Washshowing and judging of York- ington, D C The Short Course shire sale animals

Yorkshire sale featuring (Continued on Page 7)

For County FFA

Members of the Red Rose Future Farmers of America

Zimmerman from R1 East Earl at Hiestand's Field which is Groff was the big winner in located between Mount Joy was a parade of some of ABC's 1963 and 1964, the last years and Maytov/n The picnic, be top bulls in the Jersey, Guernthe District sponsored the lev-ginning at 7:30 pm, will be sey, and Holstein breeds Harcontouring county It will be played un-In addition to Zimmerman der the lights Each chapter and Groff, entries now include will be responsible for report.

The law Fisher Manhaim of the Board' Cy Loren Zimmerman, East Earl ing to Jay Fisher, Manheim R King (shown in photo with R1, John Campbell, Sr, New R1, for the number of meals Area Dairy Princess Carol needed Resc vations will be Ann Hess) accepted until August 5th

Members were reminded to to the stage

(Continued on Page 4)

Four 4-H Club members Counties attending 4-H Citi-On Friday, the 5th, begin zenship Short Course at the will run from Sunday, July 24 At 630 pm, there will be through Saturday, July 30 (Continued on Page 6)

Survey Of Custom Farm Machinery Work & Rates Finds Both Increase

more this year to get your the report continued grain combined or your crops The hauling of farm prod-

were generally less than five distributors, and sprayers percent, with only a few in excess of ten percent

Custom hiring of machinery on the farm appears to be in- vania, the Crop Reporting creasing in the nation as a Service showed a separate whole, a U S Department of schedule for the south central Agriculture report showed and southeastern valley areas 9 30 am, Lancaster Coun- USDA found that 28 percent versus the mountain sections ty SWCD Field Day at Hom- of the 153 million acres of in the rest of the state The 1 pm., Lancaster County tom, or exchange basis Twen-SWCD Plowing Contest at ty-eight percent of all the hay in the U.S. was custom baled,

It may cost you slightly and 27 percent of the silage, sprayed, according to a survey ucts also relied heavily on cusof custom rates in the state tom or exchange trucks with released this week by the 52 percent of the tonnage Pennsylvania Crop Reporting moved off of farms in 1964 so handled, USDA said The Although the agency found report showed that the four director, shown here hold- rates for custom work were machines most often rented ing this Field Day Pig up, it added that increases were tractors, trucks, fertilizer

> In breaking down the rates for custom work in Pennsyl-

Judging from the list of (Continued on Page 4)

Summer Picnic Planned Dairymen Meet At ABC To View Parade Of County's Top Bulls

which never quite materializ- In kicking off the bull

Highlighting the program was led by Roth was assisted

FFA Hog Show by the Lan- came through the line. He took man Lewis C Ayers caster County Swine Produc one look at the crowd of some scheduled for next Tuesday at Shaking off his handlers, he Company, Allentown, Two quality pork events are the Lancaster Stock Yards. dashed down the chute and serve as official judge Details for the Southeastern headed for his stall Handlers An added feature of this

In introducing the bull Breeders Roger Emig,, reminded dairy families of the upcoming "At-Lancaster County dairymen lantic on Parade" program set test, Emig told the audience (Continued on Page 6)

FFA Hog Show Set For July 26

The Lancaster County Future Farmers of America are planning to hold their Fourth Annual Market Hog Show and Sale at the Lancaster Stock Yards on Tuesday, July 26. The show will start at 800 A buef flutter of excite- am and the sale at 1 30 p.m., Trophies to be given at the ment prevailed as the last bull according to committee chair-

Approximately 200 head of ers Association were displayed 400 people out there and de-hogs has been entered Henry at the meeting The show is cided it was no place for him Grubei of A & B Packing

Pennsylvania District dairy in the barn quickly brought year's show will be a fitting show to be held at Hershey him under control, but he was and showing contest sponsored August 22 were discussed in no way inclined to return by Eby's Feed Mill, Lititz. The Lancaster County Swine Association show, master of ceremonies again donate trophies for the (Continued on Page 4)

AW! C'MON, CY, DRINK SOME MILK — lovely er Graybill farm, Manheim grain harvested in 1964 was slightly lower charges for ing to ABC's dapper symbol Cy R. King as she offers him a container of nature's perfect beverage following the Twilight Meeting of dairymen at Atlantic Breeders Cooperative.