● Policy Planning

ly to discuss plans for conducting its annual policy development (PD) program. Meetings will be held later at various locations in the county to give all Farmers' Assn. members a chance to voice their ideas, Wivell said.

The PD meetings, sponsored by the Pennsylvania Farmers' Association, "gives every member his say," Wivell noted, adding that individual "recommendations are studied and debated with those of all other members throughout America, and finally are reflected in the adopted policies (of AFBF)"

Why we are now selling BIG "H" FEEDS

Service to YOU is the cornerstone of our business. This is our main reason for teaming up with BIG "H"

We recently shook hands on an agreement that is important to you. Honeggers' Big "H" Feeds are now available through us. This is a result of long and careful consideration on our part as to what we believe is best for our customers.

Honeggers' & Co., Inc., with home offices in Fairbury, Ill., is one of mid-America's leading full-line feed manufacturers... and no late comer to the feed business. They've formulated quality feeds for 37 years and know and understand this feeding business.

You share in the benefits of advance nutrition technology from an outstanding staff of research and nutrition personnel at the 600 acre Honegger Research Farm at Forrest, Illinois.

Big "H" Feeds stand on their performance records... Big "H" Local Logic Proof from farms right in local areas like ours. These factual, dollars-and-cents performance figures help you with your feed buying decisions.

Our decision to go the Big "H" way was made on your behalf. It is one that can benefit you. Our own policy has the same meaning. We pledge to farmers to continue to do our best to serve them.

Come in and ask to see Big "H" Local, Logical facts and figures. Let us show you why our Big "H" Feed decision can mean lower costs of production for you. We welcome your visit.
