 is reportedly the sole law governing the right of gas utilities to condemn land for pipeline purposes.
 At Tuesday's meeting, John Good, assistant to Association attorney Fred Cadmus, III, reported that four bonds presented to the Chester County Court by the Manufacturers Heat & Light Co. of Pittsburgh on Monday have not been approved by the court. The judge is taking the bonds under advisement, Good said, and a decision is expected within the week.

A petition for intervention has been filed with the Federal Power Commission by the Landowners Assn., Supervisors, Commissioners, and individual landowners of Chester County, to request a public hearing to air grievances of those whose land has been
