VOL. 11 NO. 51

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, November 19, 1966

$2 Per Year

Ticket Deadline For Dague Testimonial Set At Nov. 21st

Advance reservations for the testimonial dinner planned for actiring Congressman Paul B. Dague for November 25th are going well, ticket committee chairman Mrs. Clyde Wivell reported this week. She remanded anyone planning to attenu the affair, which will be hela at the Dutch Town & Country Inn, Vintage, has un-til Monday, November 21, to buy a ticket Tickets are available through any of the Lancaster-Chester County Farmers' Association directors

The two, county farmer associations are co-sponsoring the testimonial in tribute to Dague's long service to the people of the 9th Congressional District

Featured speaker for the evening will be Marvin Mc-(Continued on Page 6)

A $1000 HANDSHAKE - Lancaster County Soil & Water Conservation add their contributions to District director chairman Ames H. Funk, center, transfers $1000 bond to M. speed the proposed $430,000 M. Smith, right, who accepted on behalf of the Lancaster County Farm & Home Certer toward a financially Foundation. The donation will be added to the building fund for the Farm & stable and rapid completion. Home Center. Looking on are SWCD directors, from left, Aaron Z Stauffer; J. Everett Kreider; and Henry H. Hackman

SWCD Adds To Growing Farm & Home Fund

The ever-growing fund to build Lancaster County's Farm & Home Center got another boost Monday night when directors of the Lancaster County Soil & Water Conservation District donated $1000 to the cause

The donation derived from government bonds which the District bought when it discontinued ownership of its own conservation equipment SWCD chairman Amos H Funk said, in making the donation, that he hoped other county organizations might be inspired to

At this week's meeting, (Continued on Page 12)

1966 Pennsylvania Seedleaf Tobacco Crop Smallest Since '57

Service

cent below the five-year aver- 1965 age (1960-64). It is the small-PCRS reports

A combination of fewer acres six weeks ago for the 1966 yields are the primary causes ture will be collected late this Type 41 tobacco crop, at 42.5 of this 9-year-low in Pennsyl- month in a survey to be conchanged, according to an an expected yield of 1700 pounds Crop Reporting Service nouncement this week by the per acre will be 200 pounds The current production esti- average Two thousand fewer and land in farms will be col- nual convention at Penn State The 1100-member state assomate is 17 percent less than acres were planted to Type lected by enumerators who University this week named ciation added six new chapters est crop harvested since 1957, much of the area delayed har- al data will be obtained from Kline, also of Lititz R3 Steels ters are Liberty. Red Lion, (Continued on Page 8)

State To Gather Farm Information

HARRISBURG — Latest sta-The original estimate about planted this year and poorer tisties on the state's agricul-

dividual farmers

The survey, Nordberg said, end early in December

F. Longenecker, President State Young Farmer Assn.

STATE COLLEGE, PA. - Young farmers from all over 95 pounds below the five-year crops, farm labor and wages, gates to the association's an- Nittany Lion Inn last year's crop, and 19 per- 41 tobacco this year than in will interview farmers, accord- Forney F Longenecker, Lititz this year to bring the total ing to Elmer Nordberg, agri- R3, president for 1967 Out-number of YFA chapters in Late season rainfall over cultural statustican Addition going president was Paul B Pennsylvania to 44 New chapvest completion until October, mailed questionnaires to be comprise the main farming en- Kutztown, Kennard-Dale, Confilled out and returned by in-terprise for both Longenecker rad Weiser, and Northampton. and Kline will start late thus month and rer, Manheim R2. was named the State's Outstanding Young to replace Longenecker as Farmer for 1966 public relations chairman and newsletter editor nullion pounds, remains un-varia Seedleaf production An ducted by the Pennsylvania The presidency of the Pennsyl- the state turned out in record vania Young Farmer Associa- numbers for this year's con-Much of the information tion stayed in Lancaster Coun-vention with some 300 attend-Pennsylvania Crop Reporting behind last year's yield, and about livestock, poultry, eggs, ty for a second year as dele-ing the banquet held at the

A dairyman from Laberty, Another countian, Jay Roh Pa, Gerald Parker, was named

Outstanding YFA regional (Continued on Page 6)

Grassland & Forage Conference To Feature Research Progress

Agricultural Experiment Sta- Inn tion at Penn State.

Farm Calendar

November 21 — 21st and 22nd. Pennsylvania Grassland & Forage Conference at Penn State University

derectors meet, Exchange Lancaster

November 22 - 730 p.m., Ag-

November 24 — Anytime between noon and midnite, Lancaster County Turkey Enters Association members (Continued on Page 9)

search in the cotal farm picture, John B Washko, professor ture including a challenge for of agronomy, will discuss fate tuture achievements in re-plantings-of summer annuals search, will be featured under and corn, both for green chop, "Forage Research to take the place of forage Horzons' at the 7th annual wiped out by drought Washko Grazzland and Forage Confer-will also suggest the use of ence November 21 and 22 at earlier than normal plantings Penn State University The of small grains for parture and speaker will be Henry R Fort- green chop All meetings will mann, assistant director of the be held in the Nittany Lion

In addition, Washko will describe experiments with in-(Continued on Page 8)

RED ROSE DHIA DIRECTORS TO PLAN ANNUAL MEETING

-& p.m., Red Rose DHIA Dairy Herd Improvement As- ber 3, 4-H lambs, poultry breed sociation will hold their reg- meets, furkeys, 4-H capons, vo-Room, Union Stock Yards, ular quarterly meeting Mon-cartional poultry, and bioiler way annual meeting for Lan- viser Victor Plastow, this will contest; December 16, produccaster County, at Manheim be a planning meeting in prep- er-dealer quality eggs: Decem-Central High School, Man- aration for the association's ber 23, 4-H sheep blocking and annual get-together which well grooming. January 2, 4-H po-be held in the Exchange Room small grains, all potatoes, hay, at the Union Stock Yards, all tobacco, wool, all vegeta-Lancaster.

The place of forage crop 1e- Among other research speak. Closing Dates Entries Listed

HARRISBURG - Closing dates for State Farm Show entries, other than most classes of farm hvestock and poultry, were announced this week by Horace L Mann, show direc tor The show, No 51, will be held January 9 to 13

Entry closing dates listed were November 28, 4-H Entomology Clubs — mounted specimens of insects that, unless-controlled, feed on farm crops and prey upon farm animals December 1, 4-H and Directors of the Red Rose FFA tractor driving, Decemday, November 21, at 8 pm and reaster chickens: Decem-According to association ad- ber 10, horse and mule pulling be coming up in January. tato grading; January 7, in-Monday night's meeting will dividual apiary exhibits, corn,

(Continued on Page 6)

- held this week at Penn State University.

YOUNG FARMER ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT Forney Longenecker of Lititz R3 addressing the more than 300 members at the association's state convention