

VOL. 12 NO. 36

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, August 5, 1967

$2 Per Year

26 County 4-H'ers To State Days Aug. 7-9 Fisher Again Tops FFA Hog Show; Mary Lou Landis Named 270 Sale Animals Total $13,789 Twenty-six Lancaster County '67 County Poultry Queen

Last year's Future Farmer county bog show champion Robert Fisher of East Earl R1 proved Tuesday that it was no accident. Although he didn't match last year's record by winning grand and reserve champion titles, he set a new record by repeating for the top title in the fifth annual show and sale at the Lancaster Stock Yands.

In addition, the Grasslands Chapter youth paced the winners with firsts in six classes - including Pen of 10 — and three second placings

In tapping Fisher's 205 pound Hampshire barrow for the championship, judge Hen-

(Continued on Page 8)

194

4-H youngsters will be joining some 1200 others next week at Pennsylvania State 4-H Days to be held on the campus of Penn

State University August 7-9th. Competition will center around judging events and demonstrations, with state titles at stake. Teams and individuals who have recently won blue ribbons in district agricultural and home economics competition will be featured. Agricultural judging contests include dairy, entomology, general livestock and horse.

(Continued on Page 7)

County Guernsey Breeders Field Day Set Aug. 10

The Lancaster Guernsey Breeders' Association will hold its annual field day August 10th according to association Lapp.

hosted by Mr. and Mrs. C. Breneman & Sons, vocational agriculture teachers Strasburg R1. of Guernsey cattle. David J. Olig of McMillen Feed Mills,

Reservations are requested (Continued on Page 4)

Mary Lou Landis

Directors of the Lancaster County Poultry Association Thursday night chose a queen who will carry the county banner into competition for the State Poultry Queen title at Hershey later this month.

Meeting at the Lancaster Farm Credit building, directors endorsed Mary Lou Landis as Lancaster County Poultry Queen for 1967. The 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myron L. Landis appears to be a young lady of many talents.

Her high school career at Lampeter-Strasburg was highlighted with outstanding achievements in music and sports. For example: she was high scorer in field hockey for the past two years; was captain of the girl's hockey and basket-(Continued on Page 4) secretary treasurer Elmer D. Many Repeat Wins At County Dairy This year, the event will be 4-H Roundup; 31 To District Show start at 10 o'clock, and will in- quite a few of last year's win- Ellen Kettering of Lititz R3. the department at Garden Spot clude judging of three classes ners proved lightning could strike twice.

In the Holstein division on Arrowsmith, Peach Bottom. He Inc., will judge the morning Monday, Richard Rutt of Quar- again swept both top Jersey event and will be the fea-tured afternoon speaker. he won last year with Twinkle pion Hillacres Milkboy Penny he won last year with Twinkle pion Hillacres Milkboy Penny Edgefield Star Sequoia The repeating in the top spot of anyone wishing to purchase four-year-old cow also again Another repeating champion the fried chicken lunch, which proved her worth. She will not was Averril Royer, 2025 Oregon will be offered at $150. Those be one of the 31 ammals ehgi- Pike Her animal was judged interested are advised to con- ble for the district show Au- best fitted, and won the senior tact one of the three field day gust 25 at Hershey, however, and grand champion fitting ticommitteemen by August 7th because Rutt has sold her to the for all breeds. They are: Herbert Myer, 687- another area Holstein breeder

At the two-day county 4-H Reserve Holstein honors went dairy roundup, held this week to Henket Apollo Ellen, a sen-The morning program will at the Guernsey Sale Pavilion, for yearling shown by Mary

Another repeat winner in the breed judging was Steven

(Continued on Page 5)

Philip Ogline

Dairymen Okay Base-Excess Plan

Dairymen in the Delaware throughout the year The base-Valley federal order milk mar- forming period will be July keting area approved amend-through December, except this ing the order to include the ycar, when it will be August proposed base-excess plan, U. through December.

Movement of teachers in several of the county's vocational agriculture departments in recent months resembles a sort of "musicalchairs" activity.

At Solanco, the three-man de-(Continued on Page 16)

S. Department of Agriculture Each farmer's base will reofficials announced this week floct his average daily deliver-The amendment became ef- ies to the market in the basefective August 1st, after more forming months. It will deterthan two-thirds of the dairy- mine how much milk the can ,۲ men voting in the referendum deliver to the market in the indicated their approval. The following months of March base-excess pricing plan estab- through June to be priced at lishes an incentive to dairy the base rate Malk sold in exfarmers to adjust their milk cess of his base will bring a production to an even output farmer a lower price, USDA notes.

Farm Calendar August 7 - 7, 8, and 9, State the request of the Inter-State 4-H Days at Penn State Uni- Malk Producers' Cooperative. versity.

- 7.45 pm., Joint meeting of State University.

Red Rose DHIA directors and supervisors at Lancaster Farm Credit building. August 8 - 8th to 10th, 1967 Pa Greenhouse and Retail Florists Conference at Penn August 10 - 10 am., Lancaster County Guernsey Breeders Association field day at farm of C. Henry Breneman, Hessdale.

- 4 p.m., dedication of diagnostic laboratory at New Bolton Center.

The amended order 1s based on a public hearing in Philadelphia, June 12-13, held at Temperatures during the next five days are expected to average near the normal range of 86 to 65 with little day-to-day change expectêd.

Precipitation in the form of showers is expected to total more than 1/2-inch, occurring about Monday.

RICHARD RUTT, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Rutt of Quarryville R2, once again showed his homebred cow Twinkle Edgefield Star Sequoia to the grand championship at the county 4-H dairy roundup this year. But this will be the last time Rutt and Twinkle will appear in the show ring together as Dick sold the 4-year-old cow to another Holstein breeder this week. L. F. Photo