ry Gruber of A & B Packing Co., Allentown, noted: "This is the kind of conformation we like to see . . . fully muscled. I doubt that this animal will have more than one-inch of backfat"

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fisher. Bob is a 1967 graduate of Garden Spot High School. Although he is presently working in a garage, his ambition is to eventually have a farm of his own. Not surprisingly, he plans to specialize in hog production.

The reserve title this year went to Earl Stauffer, Ephrata R1, for his open class champion Duoc lightweight. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Stauffer. Earl is a member of the Ephrata High School Clois-

ROBERT FISHER, East Earl R1, displays his second rosette in as many years for having the grand champion at the FFA Hog Show. The 205-pound Hampshire barrow brought 49 cents a pound at the sale Tuesday afternoon.

ter FFA Chapter Although he finished runnerup to Fisher for the champion hog title, Stauffer reversed that standing later in the showmanship competition. Although the sale of the FFA hogs which followed the show brought in a whopping $13,789.79, individual and aver-
