Brighten Up Meals With Cranberries

SPENCE

Take it from us, you won't find cooking dull when you use cranberries. With a good supply of cranberry products you can let your imagination go to work. You'll be turning out gourmet meals that will have your family and guests singing your praises! Cranberries are a favorite especially around the holiday season; they are usually low in price at this time, too. Freeze some when they are in good supply so that you will have them to use the year round.

Next time you want to put your culinary creativity to work, try this easy-to-make Cranberry Corn Meat Relish. And make it an easy-to-serve relish by molding it in an ordinary glass tumbler. Nice to give as a gift, too.

CRANBERRY-CORN MEAT RELISH

- 2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
- 1 can (13 3/4 oz.) or 2 cups chicken broth
- 1 can (1 lb.) whole cranberry sauce
- 1/2 cup sweet pickle relish
- 1 can (12-oz.) kernel corn, drained
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery

Combine gelatin and chicken broth; stir and let stand 5 minutes. Put over very low heat and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Cool and chill until slightly thickened. Combine cranberry sauce and gelatin mixture. Fold in remaining ingredients. Spoon mixture into 4 straight-sided tumblers which have been lightly oiled. Chill until firm. Unmold by dipping tumblers into lukewarm water for a few seconds. Cut into 1/2-inch slices and serve with meat. 10 to 12 servings.

Here is a refreshing molded salad, combining the flavors of luscious whole cranberry sauce and a spicy sour cream mixture.

Two important things when borrowing money

You need a sharp pencil plus the specialized financial advice of Farm Credit to determine how your financial needs can best be served. Farm production must be maintained, even increased if possible. Providing the financing to insure this is Farm Credit's job. Farm Credit loans are available now for any sound farm need. And, at realistic rates. Farm Credit interest is based on the unpaid balance of the loan. That saves you money.
