on them at referenda to be held on dates not yet determined. The milk referendum is scheduled for December 17.

The Pennsylvania Agricultural Commodities Marketing Act of 1968 permits a commodity group to call for a vote among producers who would have the opportunity to vote for or against self assessment.

State apple producers are the only group currently operating under a self-assessment plan. Their assessment rate is three cents a hundredweight for apples sold for fresh use and one cent for apples sold for processing.

ed to hear verbally and in print, the other side of the story.

With the industry divided, it is easy for the Secretary to say, "What do you want?"

"If you really desire a lab as I was left under the impression when I became involved you better get fired up and give Secretary Bull your word that you want it and go after it," Beksler told the directors.

It is back in your lap."

An hour or more discussion followed Beksler's report.

sides were aired and finally the matter was tabled, pending the outcome of present meetings in Harrisburg on the over-all state lab situation.

The directors also decided to take the annual poultry tour to the NEPPCO Show in Atlantic City this year, October 14-16.
