LEOLA PINCUSHIONS

By Kathy Hooper

The Leola Pincushions 4-H Club reorganized June 4, 1969, at the home of Mrs H Jacob Hooper. The meeting was called to order by president Kathy Hooper who then led the club in the 4-H pledge. Since secretary Pat Smucker was not able to attend the meeting, the next item of business was the election of new officers for this year. The new officers are as follows: president, Regina Killheffer, vice president, Sharon Stauffer, secretary, Bonnie Hess, treasurer, Marilyn Smucker, song leader, Debbie Hairy, game leader, Brenda Hooper and Joanna Barrett, news reporter, Kathy Hooper, and county council representative, Pat Smucker.

There were eighteen members present and four members absent. The leaders for this year are Mrs William Cochran and Mrs H Jacob Hooper. The first meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 10, from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. at the home of Mrs H Jacob Hooper.

ELM AND PENRYN

by Cindy Shelly

Elm and Penryn 4-H meeting was held June 2 at 7:30 in the Penryn Fire Hall.

The guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Wilbur Hossler. The topic was what 4-H means to you.

The next meeting will be held July 7 at the Penryn Fire Hall. This meeting will be family night, so we hope to see all the parents there.

JOYS-OF-ALL-TRADES

By Corene Rohrer

The Manheim Joys-of-All-Trades 4-H Club held its second meeting, Wednesday at the Manheim Junior High at one o'clock. Primary on the agenda was the selection of this summer's projects by each club member.

Several of the club's members will be engaged in county and state-wide activities this month. Ellen Mikota attended Camp Kanesatake the ninth through the thirteenth of June. Marilyn Stauffer, Mary Ann Shelly, and Corene Rohrer will attend 4-H Congress on June sixteen through nineteen.

The best way to keep a secretary busy.
