VOL. 14 NO. 33

Lancaster Farming, Saturday, July 12, 1969

$200 Per Year

RECEIVING CUCUMBERS at Good's Plant Food Store in Intercourse. Harvey Good, moyes the pickles with a tow-motor in front of an Amish grower's team. Farmers seem pleased with the first results of an excellent growing season in this first sylvania. At noon there will be a year trial.

Plowing Contest Set For July 29

July 25 and 26 .

and Waiwick

ings They are New Holland,

Ephrata, Solanco, Penn Manor,

A pictorial report of conserva

(Continued on Page 12)

Youths Qualify

County 4-H youths qualified

In the senior division, Burnell

Brubaker, Lancaster, were named winners for their demonstra-

ed the safe handling of live-

In the junior division, Judy

(Continued on Page 11)

Lamb 4-H Club

for district competition Tuesday

when they competed in the local

County 4-H

For District

County Plowing Contest were 4-H tractor driving contest, a finalized Wednesday night at the fish_denonstration and a pig director's meeting of the local chase for the children. Soil and Water Conservation District Aaron Stauffer, chairman, reported the time and place of the contest to be Tuesday, July 29, starting at 10 am at Earl 1es (level land) Hurst's farm, Lititz R3 Rain date is Thursday, July 31

County farmers or those reg. the State Farm Conservation ularly employed as farm work. Award from he Keystone Chapters are invited to enter This er of Soil Conservation Society through Thursday, is sponsored year a new class for farm women of America. In making the an- by the farm cooperative trade has been added. So, if you're 16 nouncement, Orval Bass, Con- organization and College of Agyears-old or over, you should get servationist, said Funk will re-riculture of The Pennsylvania your entries to Aaron Stauffer, ceive the award at the society's State University. Ephrata R1. no later than July annual meeting in Lockhaven,

Calendar

Tuesday, July 15

10.00 am - District 4-H Live stock Judging, Masonie Home Farms, Elizabethtown.

8'00 p.m - Lancaster County Farm and Home Foundation Directors meet, Farm and Home Center.

11 30 p m -4-H Tour to Iowa leaves Farm and Home.

Center. Wednesday, July 16

8 30 a.m - New Holland Young Demonstration Day in the Faim Farmers Tour, leave High and Home Center

10 00 2 m - Holstein Judging Buchen Manheim R3, and Roy School, Bucks County.

Thursday, July 17

7 30 p.m — 4 H Horse Club tion "Better Care—Better Pro-Leaders meet, Farm and fits" The demonstration show-Home Center

800 pm-Inter-state Milk Pro- stock Ray and Burnell are ducers meeting, Farm and members of the Baby Beef and Home Center.

Friday, July 18

- Picnic, Gettysburg.

Local 4-H Youths To Attend PAFC Plans for the 1969 Lancaster Judging, the Lancaster County Summer Institute

Two hundred rural boys and girls from 46 Commonwealth counties and parts of New The classes for plowing are York State and New Jersey will contour, small plow (level land). convene in Shippensburg tolarge plow (level land) and ladmorrow, at Shippensburg State College for the ninth summer institute of the Pennsylvania In other business Amos Funk Association of Farmer Cooperawas announced as the winner of

The institute, which will run

Also being held the same day School FFA Chapters complet- neth Risser, Leola R1, is a coun- farms will be 4-H and FFA Land ing Conservation Programs were cil scholar. Other local youths

(Continued on Page 5)

Farmers Show Enthusiasm For Cucumber Cash Crop

when you get the hang of it.' nevest cash crop said an Amish faimer Thuisday He was speaking about picking

Holstein Men Set Field Day

The Lancaster County Holstein Breeders Association will hold their annual Field Day on farm of Paul B Zimmerman, R D 1. Ephrata

North of Ephrata to Wickes also apparently happy with the Lumber Yard Turn right, Zim- lesults that are now begining to merman's is the first farm on show in this new venture. the left. Field Day signs will be posted.

The judging contest will begin at 10 30 a.m Official judge will be Raymond Seidel, Kerchenhill Farm, Richland, Penn-L. F. Photo chicken barbecue, price $1.50. later than July 17th.

> F Pound, Director of Extension, of fine pickles from his mule-Brattleboro, Vermont as speakmittee in charge is H. Richard ond day. Hershey (Chairman), David Sweigart, and James Kreider

"Picking really isn't so bad cucumbers-Lancaster County's

The Oxford Pickle Company, South Deeifield Wass, had advertised for growers early this spring with the hope of obtaining at least 50 acres in the area for this growing season And the attempt has been successful For now the pickles are comming in to the local receiving station at Good's Plant Food Store in Intercourse and the company repre-Wednesday, July 23, 1969, at the sentative David Oiloff is happy with the way they have been grown The 39 farmers raising 51 To attend, follow Route 222 acres of SMR 58 cucumbers are

In fact, for the farmers who have done some harvesting to date, the word enthusiasm would describe their reactions. "It's an exceptional year for pickles," another grower said. "The last rain really brought them on. We chicken barbecue, price $1.50. finished picking our 1½ acres Reservations should be made no in one day and they had grown later than July 17th.

The afternoon program will over again." This farmer had begin at 1:30 p.m. with James just unloaded nearly 100 bushels drawn steel-wheeled hay wagon. It was his second picking. Nor-The Holstein Field Day Com- mal picking is usually every sec-

Harvey Good, local link be-(Continued on Page 9)

Wheat Certificate Payments Set

soon after July 14, 1969, 14 cents per bushel, he explained. more than the 1968 crop certifition and Conservation Service 1969 wheat crop. said this week.

Averril Royer, 2025 Oregon in Lancaster County will be total about $800 million to ap-Pike, is co-chairman and Ken- made to producers on about 850 proximately 980,000 farmers He announced in order of their plac attending are Lynn Heistand, the difference between July 1, the total production on 45 mi 1969 wheat parity price of $2.71

Producers of eligible 1969 crop per bushes and the 1969-crop nawheat will get $152 per bushel tional average loan rate of $1.25

Certificate payments add subcate value, Fred G Seldomridge, stantially to the income farmers Chairman, Agricultural Stabiliza- receive from marketing their

Chairman Seldomridge related The Chairman said payments that payments nationally will said the $800 million in certifi-Certificate value is based or cate payments, when related to

(Continued on Page 11)

HOME ECONOMICS DEMONSTRA-TION, (left to right) Deborah Degenhardt. Cindy Smith, and Pat Smucker gave senior 18 & 19-Pa Young Farmers Risser, of Leola R1, was selected 4-H demonstrations Wednesday that will take them on to district competition. De-borah's demonstration was titled "Buttons and Bows", Cindy's was "The Sewing Primer", and Pat's was "Sumpthin' to L. F. Photo Luv."