

Farm Women

SOCIETY 13

Society of Farm Women #13 met Thursday, February 12 at the home of Mrs. Elvin Groff, Bird-in-Hand. Mrs. Robert Sayers served as co-hostess.

A set of new flags (American and Farm Women's) was presented to the Society by Mrs. Merrill Miller in memory of her daughter Grace Ann Brian.

The group sewed cancer pads at the home of Mrs. Ervin Brown this week.

As a county project the group voted to support the Mental Health Association. A donation was also made to the Craig Hainish fund.

On March 19 the Society will serve refreshments to the guests at Conestoga View Home. Plans are being made for a week-end trip to Williamsburg, Virginia May 23-24. Any person wanting reservations should call 397-6027.

The next meeting will be held March 14 at the Witmer Fire Hall when Society #13 will entertain Society #20.

SOCIETY 25

Society of Farm Women #25 met in the home of Mrs. T. K. Burkholder, Willow Street R2, with 17 members and five guests attending. Mrs. Frank Reapsome was in charge of devotions. The gift of the month was presented to Mrs. Laban Byers.

Mrs. John Henderson, president, was in charge. Mrs. Burkholder and Mrs. Melvin Groff, delegates to the state convention, gave reports.

Members of the Society each selected a secret friend from Conestoga View. It was decided to increase membership dues by 10 cents for the scholarships for Home Economics students.

The Society voted for the Conestoga Valley Association as the county project for the coming year. Members voted to give a donation of $15 to a needy family.

Mrs. Mary Snyder was guest speaker and presented a program on Tole Ware Painting.

The next meeting will be held Saturday, March 14 at the Kready House, 14 Kready Ave., Millersville. Mrs. David Newswanger will be hostess. The program theme will be Easter Egg Decorating by Mrs. Alfred W. Moyer Jr.

SOCIETY 29

Mrs. John Hiesland, 624 Market St., Marietta, was hostess to Society of Farm Women #29 at a meeting Monday evening with Mrs. Jack Gainer as co-hostess.

Mrs. Jay Bixler was in charge of the opening. There were 21 members present when two new members were installed. They are Mrs. Larry Sawadsky, Columbia R1, and Mrs. Rheinhold Berg, Elizabethtown R1.

Mrs. Ronald Ober, president, was in charge of the business when plans for a hoagie sale were set for March 12. Hoagies will be made hot and cold, by order only, and will be delivered. Mrs. Gerald Ruhl, Mount Joy R1, is in charge of orders.

Husbands and members will attend a hockey game by bus at Hershey on Feb 21. The bus will leave Bossler Mennonite Church at 6:45 p.m. with refreshments at the church following the "couples night" out. The program committee is in charge of arrangements.

Society #29 members will be guests of Society #22 at 1 p.m. (Continued on Page 25)

THE BIG, GOOD PULLOVER meets autumn head-on. Its tweedy warmth bundles you up for walks in the woods and watching football games. This sweater is a snap to knit on 1/2" diameter needles. You use a strand each of apricot and cantaloupe knitting worsted, with one of white sport yarn, plus a dash of orange cotton yarn to hold the shape. With raglan sleeves and a rolled collar, the sweater can be made in children's and women's sizes. Free instructions are available by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper along with your request for Leaflet PK 5069.

● For The Farm Wife (Continued from Page 22)

- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon salt

Mix with enough sour milk or buttermilk (approximately 1/2 cup) to make a stiff batter. Bake at 425 Degrees for 20 to 25 minutes.

Mrs. Wagner says this corn pone is delicious served with cooked apples or applesauce or other cooked fruit and sugar and milk.

Using Beef Leftovers

Make soup stock from bones and pieces. Use meat gravy as part of meat pies.

Use ground leftover pieces for sandwiches, patties, croquettes, hash, jellied meat salads, stuffed peppers, turnovers, or in biscuit pin-wheels.

Use cubed leftover beef in cream sauce over toast or biscuits; in curry sauce over rice, in casseroles with rice, noodles, or spaghetti with cream sauce and cheese, in cold meat salads; creamed with potatoes or hard cooked eggs; in meat pies.

Use leftover slices for cold plates, cold sandwiches, in gravy for hot sandwiches, or heated in a barbecue sauce or brown gravy.

Serve leftover meat loaf cold or reheated with canned mushroom soup or tomato soup poured over.

Plan Helps You Spend Wisely Take advantage of weekend specials.

Inform yourself on a product before you shop for it.

Get over the idea that everything you buy has to be new. Secondhand furniture may be a good buy, if you're not permanently settled.

Be alert to quality. Compare prices.

Patronize seasonal sales at reliable shops. "White sales" offer sheets and towels at reduced prices.

Use credit wisely. Know what it costs.

What You Can Do To Protect Frozen Food Quality

Buy frozen foods that are stored at zero degrees.

Buy packages not torn, crushed, or juice stained.

Select frozen foods last, just before checking out.

Put frozen foods in insulated bags in warmer weather or if you must travel any great distance from the store to your home.

Take frozen foods home quickly.

Unpack frozen foods first, date each package, and put in freezer at once.

Store foods at zero degrees.

Store foods no longer than recommended length of time.

Use frozen foods to improve family nutrition.

Use oldest foods in the freezer first.

Know what you have in the freezer.

Thaw and prepare frozen foods as recommended.
