

Fulton Grange Appoints Float Makers for Fair

Fulton Grange 66 appointed eight members to prepare a float for the parade at the Southern Lancaster County Community Fair September 18.

Appointed at the semi-monthly meeting August 10 at Grange hall in Oakryn with Richard Holloway, Master, presiding at the business session were: Charles McSparran, Lloyd LeRoy and Donna Welk, Thomas Huber, Clifford Holloway III, David Knight, Joyce Galbreath and Mrs Alfred Overly.

Boy Scout Troop 330 will mow the hall grounds the rest of the season.

The Grange may sponsor a class in cake decorating if enough people are interested. Anyone desiring to take such a course should contact Mrs. Alfred Overly, Unicorn, at once. Recipes for the Pa State Grange cookbook must be given to Mrs Charles Reath before August 20.

Approximately 50 people attended the swimming party and wiener roast August 1 sponsored by the youth committee and 45 attended the baseball game in Baltimore August 4.

Norman Wood represented the Grange at the meeting in Lancaster August 6 concerning the fate of the monument in the square.

Miss Rahime Ozbas from Soke, Turkey, and sponsored by the Quarryville Rotary Club in the Experiment in International Living gave a very interesting talk about the history, geography, climate and living conditions in her country. Being the daughter of a farmer, she told about the crops grown there. Mrs Gloria Burkhart, Leola, had a display of Tupperware and conducted games for the group.

The Drumore 4-H Sewing Club will have a fashion show at the next meeting, August 24, and there will be suggestions for officers for next year.

The Junior Grange is requesting 14 ounce ketchup bottles for crafts. Their yarn pictures are to be completed and brought to the September 28 meeting.

Steak n' Peaches For Breakfast?

"Steak is one of the most popular items on dinner and lunch menus of most restaurants," states John Huston, Secretary, Beef Industry Council of the National Live Stock and Meat Board, "so why shouldn't it be just as popular on breakfast menus?"

To carry this idea out, the Beef Industry Council is cooperating with the Cling Peach Advisory Board to promote steak n' peaches for breakfast.

Sets of four cards with eight breakfast recipes are being sent to operators of the food service establishments. Each card has two full-color illustrations, showing how the completed menu will look when being served.

Menus of eggs, pancakes, and peaches are featured with a variety of steaks, including rib eye roll, strip loin, bone-in top loin, top sirloin, chuck, knuckle, cubed steak and ground beef.

Cultured Pearls

Cultured pearls are real pearls made by pearl oysters but they are brought about by introducing small foreign objects, such as sand grains, beneath the shell instead of waiting for nature to do so by accident.

Be a 4-H'er

Boys and girls between 9 and 19 years of age can join a 4-H Club or sign up for short-term projects.

Skirts Down, Pants Up

An a la carte fashion menu emerges for the 70's with many choices for the back-to-school and -college crowd.

There are soft, feminine, yet dramatic new looks to add spice and interest, tasty colors of yam, pumpkin, and Cheesit.

The hemline controversy makes for a see-saw clothes closet—full of ups and down with pants and tunics filling in.

However, the really new line is the LONGUETTE LOOK. Featuring the long and lean silhouette, a whole new set of proportions paces the longuette look. The longuette dress, skirt, coat, cardigan or vest allows a sliding scale of hemlines from mid-knee to two inches below the knee, to midi length.

The emphasis is on soft styling. Wrapped skirts with controlled flare, peplum effects, blouses enrich the gentle lineal longuette. For tops, team up the dress or skirt with long o. shorts. Choosing a color scheme and working several together separates into your wardrobe will allow the greatest versatility and timeliness.

The longuette takes on the skinny, just-to-the-waist sweater, cropped battle jacket, short fitted cardigan, or zippy little bolero. The look can easily go the other way with a longer, belted jacket, mid-length cardigan, or vest and tunic tips.

While skirts inch downward, pants are going up, with the big news centered on boot-topping gaucho pants and knickers. Gaucho pants keep the lean look with cable or rib stripes down the side. To go-with-all, legs will be sheathed in deep colors, interesting patterns and textures. Ribs, cables, jacquards, heeling-bones, and opaques with side detailing will call attention to lower calf and ankle. Besides knee-highs and pantyhose, knecappers will add a finishing touch to sportswear longuette. Choose accessories as carefully as basic pieces to get a unified look in a season that calls for many additions.

While the look is LONGUETTE, the fashion feel is SOFT-NESS. Besides styling, fabrics, textures, and colors create softness in a variety of ways. Some materials have hair and fur fibers added, less weight and more suppleness is seen, and finishing processes, such as brushing, give lift, lightness and a velvety touch.

Corduroy proves its texture talent as well as fashion, mobility again tuning up in college-aged garments in everything from ribless to jumbo wide and narrow wales, thick and thin combinations, and skip cords. Textures combine in exciting ways too.

For example, a corduroy battle jacket and zip longuette skirt
