

Annual St. Mary's Horse Show Slated at West Grove Aug. 29

Thirty classes, including two challenge trophy events, will be offered for hunters and pony hunters in the sixth annual St. Mary's Horse Show Saturday, Aug. 29 at West Grove.

The first class will enter the parochial school grounds showing opposite the Avon Grove High School at 8:30 a.m.

Champion and reserve champion points will be awarded in each of the hunter classes, including small and large pony hunter hack, junior hunters, green hunters and the working division.

Exhibitors in the Junior Hunter Division will compete for the Danny Vannoy Perpetual Trophy, won last year by Debbie King, Malvern, with Muskavado II.

Hugh Wiley — former U.S. Equestrian Team member who rode the famed "Nautilus" to international triumphs—and Mis Wiley will judge the show.

Veryl I. McMinn, West Grove, is chairman and chief steward. John M. Russell, Coatesville RD, announcer. J. Haines Kirk and Ray R. Lindsay, trainers. Teddy Jones, Coatesville, official farmer and a veterinarian from the New Bolton Center, Univers-

Some Tobacco Facts

Over 98 per cent of the flue-cured tobacco growers in six Southeastern States — Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia — recently voted in favor of a three-year continuation of production controls and a price-support program for tobacco. The farmers in North Carolina and South Carolina in a separate proposal also voted overwhelmingly for increased assessments on themselves to support Tobacco Associates, which sponsors a self-help program to promote flue-cured sales overseas and at home.

ity of Pennsylvania, will be in attendance.

Post entries will be accepted for all classes.

4-H Rough Riders By Pennie Waters

The 4-H Rough Riders from Quarryville held a monthly meeting Thursday, August 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Groff, Quarryville.

After the minutes were read and the dues were collected, the members worked on their project books. Questions were asked to certain members and the 4-H requirements were reviewed. Then refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

During the summer the following events were held:

On May 23 the 4-H club went on a trip to Hanover Shoe Farm. We saw some of the best horses around.

And on June 25 a grooming and showmanship class was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Henkel, Strasburg. The results of that class were:

Junior Division—first place, Carol Simpson; second place, John Abie; and third place, Pennie Water.

Senior Division — first place, Shirley Creig; second place, Nancy Henkel; third place, Candy Groff; and fourth place, Beverly Dearolf.

Electric heat is pure comfort...

...one reason over 50,000
PP&L customer families are enjoying it today

Pure comfort is many good things. Like warmth. And peace-of-mind. It comes with the change to electric heat. Flameless heat. Clean. Quiet. Comfortable. Carefree.

Electric heat is the kind you don't worry about. Since there are hardly any moving parts it's virtually maintenance-free.

There's comfort in knowing, too, that your electric heat will be as modern years from now as it is today.

Yes, electric heat is pure comfort in every sense of the word. So, ask your PP&L Recommended Electric Home Heating Dealer about it, today. Or, call PP&L for a free estimate of the cost of heating your home electrically.
