THE money maker

5%

GOLDEN PASSBOOK

When it comes to making money, a Fulton 5% Golden Passbook does the standout job. It compounds 5% interest continuously from day of deposit to day of withdrawal. That's an average annual yield of 5.13% . . . the highest rate the law allows. And a Golden Passbook Account is so easy to open. After the $100 initial deposit, you add any amount, any time.

Passbook Convenience—all money on deposit 90 days may be withdrawn without notice, but with full interest, during the first ten days of January, April, July and October. Or any time on 90 days written notice. Join the thousands who have made Fulton's 5% Golden Passbook their favorite savings plan . . . and with good reason.

Sire Power, NEBA Slate Open House

A chicken barbecue will highlight the annual Sire Power open house October 8 to 11 at Tunkhannock. This year's open house will be co-sponsored by Sue Rower and NEBA.

Tickets for the open house barbecue on October 10 may be obtained from the NEBA technician or at NEBA, Tunkhannock. Tickets should be purchased or reserved on or before Friday, October 2.

Following this barbecue a short program will be offered to answer questions about Sire Power and NEBA Reports will be given by NEBA President, Ed Flitcraft, as well as by members of the Sire Power and NEBA staff.

All of the Sire Power proven sires are now housed at Tunkhannock including the Holsteins King Ivan, Superb, Emperor, Transmitter, and many others including Lucvky, Vein, Image, and Gent.

Other new additions include the Jerseys Beacon and Dreamer, a new sire due to enter service late this fall Flashy and Maestro of the Ayrshire Breed may be seen Guernseywise, the newer sires are not housed here, but breeders will have the opportunity to review the present lineup.

An open house will also be held at the Frederick, Maryland facilities (co-sponsored by the Md ABC and W Va ABC) on Thursday, October 22, where approximately 40 Sire Power "in waiting" and "sampling" Sires are housed. A chicken barbecue is included in this program.
