

Photos and News From Solanco Fair

The champion Holstein at the Solanco Fair this week was this nine-year-old shown here by Mrs. Carol Troop. She and her husband, Dr. Carl Troop, Quarryville RD3, bought the animal this year and are keeping it on the farm of Carl's father, Hiram G. Troop. While there are no past records on the winning cow, Dr. Troop says, she is now milking 75 to 80 pounds a day.

A 925 pound heavyweight Hereford named "Red" was grand champion in the Solanco Baby Beef Show Thursday at the Southern Lancaster County Fair.

The animal is owned by LeRoy Welk, 17-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Welk, Quarryville RD3.

The Hereford was named the best FFA steer, before beating out "Blacks", a 925 pound Angus owned by Glenn Weidman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Weidman, Christiana RD1. The Angus was named overall reserve grand champion and was 4-H champion.

Other top animals in the FFA division were Kenneth Dearoff, FFA reserve champion and champion Chalois, Ed Weidman champion heavyweight Angus, Matt Young, reserve Angus and lightweight champ.

Other top animals in 4-H were Don Dowart, reserve champion 4-H Angus, and top lightweight Angus; Marilyn Landis, reserve champion 4-H Hereford and top lightweight animal, and John Enck, champion Hereford and top heavyweight.

All FFA steers and swine will be sold today; 4-H steers are not sold.

first senior yearling at Solanco and the junior champion at the District FFA contest.
