

CHRISTMAS

The Birthday of the Savior is here, and we are once again reminded that Christmas is a family day . . . a day of reunions and feasting, and a day of joyous gifting. But let us not forget the most important gifts of all . . . the gifts that bear neither price tags nor gay wrappings. Yet are of infinite value. These are the gifts of kindness, tolerance, consideration, and compassion. Let us hope that this Christmas will revive the true spirit of giving that began with the Birth of a Holy Child . . . to bring peace and good will to all.
