Octoraro science teacher, on "Harmony with the Bible and Science." Hall quoted numerous reference in the Bible indicating an understanding of basic scientific facts centuries before they were generally accepted. These include: that the world is round, that the world is suspended in space, that water cycles — all now scientifically established facts, but not believed at the time the Bible was written.

Members in the Bible as in fact being scientific, contrary to the known knowledge for centuries. Hall described the Bible a scientifically accurate book with scientific information far in advance of its time.

Members of the banquet committee preparing the banquet were: Clyde Martin, chairman, assisted by Robert Martin, Earl Fisher and John C. Campbell.

Hall repeatedly maintained that contrary to the thinking of many persons today, the Bible and the so-called miracles must be accepted as fact. Science is
