Ahlgren Outlines Need for Rural Development

Henry L. Ahlgren, USDA At the same time he noted In response to a question on mational need to reverse the tide are available in urban areas urban areas.

"generally agreed at the top leges are adding ag economics Without rural development levels of both the legislative and and marketing issues, social Ahlgien said he sees that within executive branches that the sciences, public policies and the next few years there will be movement of rural people from public affairs, he noted. smaller communities to larger Ahlgren said, "We are now at merical farms with everybody communities is creating an im- the point where our rural com- else having gone to the city bebalance in the private sector munities are in almost the same cause there's no job anywhere that puts our nation on a collu-position that farm families were else. sion course with disaster."

If present trends continue, USDA first came into being Ahlgren also told News-said. paper Farm Editors of America Commenting on rural developthat some cities—New York, Los many things; we have to reach paper Farm Editors of America cerned about the national move-farmers. Angeles, Chicago and Washing- a crisis hefore we start reaching convention by both a government toward greater restrictions. But Dr. Johnson also indicated ton-have already reached a for solutions." point where congestion, housing In legislation sent to Congress, tative of a private chemical Straube said pesticides should veloping better means of mon-problems, pollution and crime" each state will continue an agri- firm. cally inefficient."

The feeling is growing. Ahl. Under the multi-billion dollar restriction." places.

According to Ahlgren, it is farm tamily. But now, these col- welfare payments are better" when land grant colleges and the Reversing the trend and

Ahlgren said, by the year 2,000 This is all leading to a new said, is a 15 to 25 year movemost of the people in the U S thrust in community development. will be located in one of four ment, "a subject the President major metropolitan areas: the discusses, a subject that has be-Eastern seaboard, Florida, the come part of a new language of Great Lakes or the West coast, the executive branch," Ahlgren are almost insoluble. He des-cultural Extension program of a cribed conditions in these areas level and scope carried in 1971 as "socially intolerable, political- and each state is required to ly unmanageable and economicarry on its 4-H and nutrition aid programs.

gren said, that the solution is program, no state will get less not to send more people to these 'than' it's getting now and most will get more.

deputy under secretary for that many of the nation's ruial welfare, Ahlgren said that a rural development, spoke on areas have major problems, in-national policy of balanced what he considers to be a cluding lack of facilities which growth requires a uniform welfare program "that does not proof people moving from rural to In the past, the emphasis of vide an advantage to live on welland grant colleges was on the fare in New York City because only about 400,000 grant com-achieving rural development, he

President Nixon prepares to present a presidential pen to each of the farm editors.

Pesticide Issue Is Discussed

that "the evidence suggests ment, Ahlgren said, "Like so cussed at the National News- ment and is increasingly con- have serious implications for ment official and by a represen- on pesticide useage.

cal industry already is cutting he indicated.

The issue of pesticides was dis- back on research and develop- search and development would be evaluated on a "benefit storing the environment and de-H. L. Straube of Stauffer versus risk" basis. He noted that teeting the adverse effects of Chemical Company said the some 200 persons died last year pesticides will continue. The chemical industry "will not put from the misuse of aspirin, but trends toward short lived pestidollars into research and de- the benefits of aspirin are wide- cides and toward some type of velopment if there is too much spread and no one is seriously control of the use of pesticides proposing that aspirin be ban which are potentially hazardous ned. The same attitude should to the users probably will con-Straube indicated that chemi- prevail in relation to pesticides, tinue, he indicated.

that no accidental death has ever stated he is opposed "because it occured from DDT.

assistant director of research for sect infestation emergency." He the bureau of Sport Fisheries proposed a dual system which and Wildlife in the U.S Depart- would separate relatively harmment of the Interior, agreed on less pesticides which should the record of DDT and stated, need little or no regulations rever banned DDT and has ful pesticides which may need never-recommended it."

of U S actions on pesticides" ot chemicals' He also said there is a strong He noted, however, that awareness of the importance of "there may be natural parasites that the movement toward de-

Commenting on a proposal to He specifically pointed out license pesticide users, Straube would take too long for the farm-Dr. Raymond E Johnson, er to respond in event of an in-"The Federal government has from the more potentially haimmore regulations.

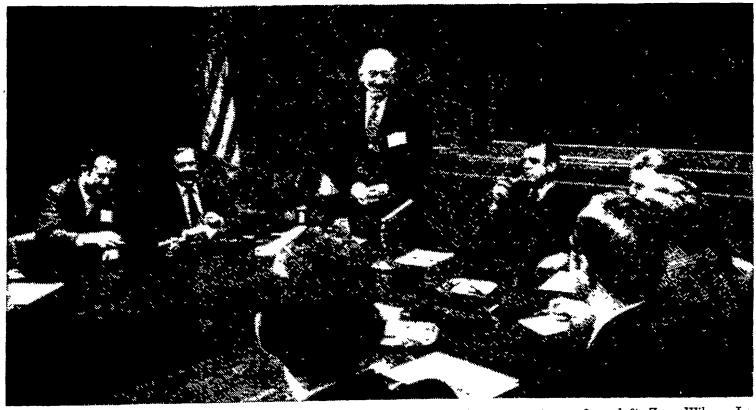

Dr Johnson noted that the Asked about the gypsy moth, World Health organization is which has been rapidly spreadthe biggest user of DDT" and ing in the Northeast and destroythat "DDT may be the best pes- ing or seriously damaging laige ticide for human health ever in- acreages of forests, Johnson said, "I'm a little appiehensive Dr. Johnson emphasized that about it (the moth)." He said the U S. government is "Aware of the intermational implications of II S. attachment is that the doubts that the situation "can be controlled without some type of II S. attachment is the doubts that the situation "can be controlled without some type of the situation of the situation of the situation is at the situation and the situation is at the situation of the situation and the situation is at the situation of the situation is at the situat pesticides to farmers in main-developing" which will destroy taining plentiful food supplies at the gypsy moth. The big question, he indicated, is whether the He particularly noted that sub- natural enemies will develop stantial cutbacks in pesticide remoth from causing very high levels of damage.

This was a typical scene during the President's comments at Newspaper Farm Editors of America meeting in the White House Rose Garden. In the back- reasonable costs. ground beautiful Japanese Cherry trees are in full blossom.

In this typical scene at the annual Newspaper Farm Editor's of America conference, S. Archie Holdridge, Hartford Courant, NFEA president, standing, introduces the first speaker of the morning, Clifford Hardin, U.S. secretary of agriculture, who relaxes with his pipe before asking for questions from the farm editors.

Among those present are: from left, Zane Wilson, Lancaster Farming editor and NFEA regional vice president; Bernard Brenner, UPI farm editor; Holdridge, Dole, will stand for "Generation and Hardin. Other farm editors facing the speaker are of Peace, Generation of Profrom North Carolina, Ohio and Wisconsin.

GOP National Chairman Talks

Dole, Republican Robert national chairman, spoke on national and international tiends and events and some of their political implications

Commenting on the outlook for the 1972 elections, Dole said that President Nixon "will need to run on the record and I think we'll have a good story to tell" Dole said that Vietnam cur-1 ently 18 Nixon's biggest political liability but he projected that Vietnam casualties will be down to zero or near zero "before many of Nixon's critics think" When this happens, Dole projected, there will be a big increase in interest in rural development and solving other problems of interest to the American people and "a reservoir of strength" will show up for the President and offset the present attitude of Americans.

The GOP in 1972, according to gress and Generation of Prosperity."