Drug Pamphlets Are Available

Thousands of parents in Lancaster County are going for answers to questions about drug abuse. They know they should have the facts but all too often don't know where to get them, according to the Lancaster County Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse.

The Council maintains a library of drug information pamphlets and films. It also has a speakers bureau with knowledgeable people and recovered addicts who are available to talk to community groups. All of these services are free.

Here's a partial list of the drug pamphlets available from the Council:

—"Answers to the most frequently asked questions about drug abuse,"

—"National Institute of Mental Health pamphlets on Marijuana, LSD, Narcotics and the "up and down drugs;"

—"Drug Abuse;"

—"Substance, Use and Abuse;"

—"Drugs of Abuse, An Introduction to their Actions and Potential Hazards;"

—"Identification of Drug Abusers"

FILMS are also available to community groups on a first come, first served basis:

—"Focus on Marijuana," for sixth to ninth graders;

—"Drug Abuse, Everybody's Hangup," for adult groups

"Beyond LSD," for adults or adult and teenage discussion groups;

—"Drugs Are Like That," for third to fifth graders

All of the above are available from the Council on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse, 630 Janet Ave., Lancaster, Pa. 17601. Phone 299-2831
