Penn Manor FFA Helps With Signs

If you drove through Manor Township lately, you would have seen at several farms "Amos Signs" describing the various conservation practices used by that particular farmer.

The signs were made by the Penn Manor ag classes for the Lancaster County Soil and Water Conservation District which is running a self-drive tour to see the various conservation practices.

and Gus Birchler placed the signs at the various sites.

If you haven't been in Manor Township lately, make it a point to see it soon, but remember, look for Amos.
