Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

If you want to keep gravy free from lumps, add a pinch of sugar.

Freeze leftover hash in cupcake cups for future hurry-up meals. Peel off paper wrapper and pop into the oven with potatoes and a vegetable.

To keep pie filling juices from penetrating the under-crust, mix two tablespoons of sugar and two tablespoons of flour together. Sprinkle this mixture over the bottom crust before pouring in the filling.

To dress up your holiday ice cream dessert, mix 1/2-teaspoon anise flavoring with one pint of vanilla ice cream, softened. Return to the ice cream container, ice cube tray or fancy molds and freeze until firm.

Use small, individual pie (aluminum) tins to make a mobile or tree ornament. Children are able to easily cut such shapes as stars, angels, birds, etc. Attach with colorful ribbon and decorate with sequins.

Try this baked apple recipe for the holidays: Core and peel the crown off the top of each apple. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Turn apples upside-down in a deep fry pan and pour on black cherry soda. Cover pan and cook on top of the stove. Serve warm, topped with whipped cream and cinnamon candies.

Make a Christmas cheese ball. Cream eight ounces of cream cheese and spread over a shaped, chilled Cheddar cheese ball. Cover with chopped parsley and arrange strips of sweet red pepper down the sides.

If you want to remove rust from the corners of muffin and cake tins, rub with a raw potato dipped in scouring powder.

To remove gum from material, place the items in a plastic bag in the freezer for several hours. The gum then peels off easily.

If you have too much detergent in your washer, add a small amount of salt.

You'll have less sticking if you substitute powdered sugar for flour when preparing buttered cake pans.

For lighter cakes and brownies, use ginger ale as a substitute for water.

To remove starch from an iron, rub the hot iron over a paper bag containing a piece of paraffin.

To keep lunchbox sandwiches from becoming soggy, use two thin slices of meat instead of one thick one and spread sandwich "fixings," such as catsup, chili sauce or mayonnaise, between the slices of meat.

A plastic bowl scraper works fine for patching up holes in a plastered wall with patching plaster.

Make your own substitute if you don't have a magnetic screwdriver and need one for a repair job. Rub your screwdriver over a wet cake of soap a couple of times. You can place from the tiniest to the largest screw on it and it will hold them like magic.

Put several soft paper towels by the telephone before starting a painting project. If you have to answer the telephone while working, just pick up a towel and then the telephone, and this will keep the telephone from getting smudged with paint.

Use old ear muffs for door knob covers to protect your walls against banging.
