Happy Homemaking

By BARBARA BAKER

When going to state parks, the mountains and other such places on vacation and a member of the group may become lost, have each person wear a whistle strung around the neck at all times. If they do become lost, they can blow the whistle and be found more easily.

A money-saving idea is to sew upholstery patches together in a patchwork design and use to cover the worn parts of a chair. These can also be used to cover the seat of a couch. Make throw pillows and stack pillows to match, using colors that will tie in with the room's decor.

Spray your closet rods and shower curtain rods with silicone spray and the curtains and clothing will slide much easier.

Put up a low clothesline and give the children panties, anklets and short garments to hang as you put up laundry on the regular line. They will be delighted to help and will really save you time.

When hand-washing girdles, hose and other drip-dry items, place them in a colander while changing the water. The water that always accumulates under them drains away, carrying with it some of the suds. This can even cut down on the number of rinsings needed. If you leave them in the colander to drain a bit before hanging, drying time is shorter. They need not be squeezed or twisted, which might possibly damage the fabric.

Cover the inside backs of lowered closet doors with clear plastic (the kind used on storm sash) to keep the dust out, let light in and keep pesky moths away.

Your tape measure thumb-tacked to a broom handle makes a good makeshift yardstick.

If you put a house plant in a decorative planter that has to be watered from the top, insert a small drinking straw and fill this with water each time. The straw carries the water to the bottom, where the roots are.

To keep their towels from getting mixed up where several children share the same bathroom, write their names on clothespins which they can fasten to the towels when they hang them up.

Before hanging up wet blankets, string cardboard tubes (from paper towels, waxed paper, etc.) on your clothesline. Hang the blankets over them to prevent a line mark on the dried blankets.

As a new use for nylon net, stretch it around the sides of your bird's cage, seam together, make it lap over the top and snap. This keeps the seed hulls in the cage and off your floor.

Any good glass cleaner will do the job of cleaning the non-glass on your pictures. If you do not have glass cleaner on hand, use a diluted ammonia water solution containing a small amount of mild liquid detergent. Wash, rinse and dry.

We know many of our readers regularly read a friend's or relative's copy of our publication.

We don't mind. We appreciate all our readers.

On a yearly subscription in Lancaster County, the cost is less than four cents a week. Only $2.00 per year.

On a two-year subscription in Lancaster County, it's less than three cents a week. Only $3.00 for two years.

Because mailing rates are higher for out-of-county subscriptions, we have to charge more.
