All thanks to Harriet Rex And The American Red Cross Harriet's a Red Cross Volunteer

The reason her hair's in curlers is, she runs the night shift twice a week at the local Red Cross office At 2:37 am, she got the happy news about little Charles At 2:40 am, she sent the message off to The American Red Cross Headquarters in Washington, D.C. And

SHE SENT THE WORD.

before 4:00 am, the news was sent by teletype to Corporal Charlie's base in Korea

Love may be what makes the world go round But the Red Cross is what gets the messages around To servicemen, everywhere

And what makes it all happen are the Harriet Rexes of the world The hundreds of thousands of Red Cross Volunteers all across America

Maybe you don't have the time to work on one of our night shifts
