Mrs. DeHart has been a member of The Kings Daughters and Sons of the Pennsylvanis Branch of the International Order for 25 years. The Kings Daughters is a philanthropic, educational and religious organization. She is president of the Loyal Workers Circle, a position she has held several years. They have 21 members and meet once a month. They send cards to Shut-ins for Easter and Christmas and remember them with get well cards. Mrs.
and when she was second vice president of it met with the other 0 county circles.
Mr. and Mrs. DeHart are members of a pinochle club that meets in the homes once a month. They do quite a bit of traveling. They took one trip to the west coast and western Canada. They have been to Florida seven times. Mrs. Defart likes to gather sea shells in Florida and while there learned to color the shells and make different things such as roses with them
Mrs. DeHart says "I like to make things. I like to be busy with my hands. I did crochet and knit some. I embroidered a tablecloth for my neighbor last summer. I like to work with llowers in the summer." She grows as many as space permits around the lawn of their mobile home. Some she grows are miniature roses, Easter lines, clematis, geraniums, yellow daisies, petunias, carnations uchsias, impatiens, a cactus plant, a croton plant and philodendrons.

She freezes lima beans, corn and peaches. She cooks the peaches in an open kellte, lets them cool, then freezes them and she says they are delicious. Her a couple of her favorite recipes:
