Society 5

Farm Women Society 5 met last week at the home of Mrs. A. H. Weidman, Manheim RD1 with

Mrs. Harry Hershey, Lititz, serving as hostess. Roll call revealed a good attendance of members and guests present. Mrs. J. G. Longenecker, president, presided at the business portion of the meeting. It was announced that the County Convention will be held November 4 at the Lancaster School of the Bible, Eden Road, Lancaster. Donations for the bazaar table are expected.

Volunteers from the Society went to Conestoga View to help the guests play Bingo during the past month. A treat was served to all.

A donation of $50 was given to LARC and $15 to the United Campaign.

It was decided to have a bake sale at the Lancaster Shopping Center on Friday, October 20 beginning at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Dorothy Hamilton, East Petersburg, was initiated into the Society as a member.

Speaker for the afternoon was Mrs. Marlin Musser, Manheim RD2, who spoke on "I Believe in Miracles". She described their own experiences of treating their son who had suffered brain damage at birth. She described the regular and extensive treatments administered and the gradual successes of his improvement.

Society 5 will entertain Society 19 and County Officers at 1:30 p.m. Saturday, October 28 at the Coca Cola Hospitality Room, 1428 Manheim Pike, Lancaster.

Society 10

Farm Women Society 10 met recently in the home of Mrs. John Esbenschade, 1740 New Holland Pike, with Mrs. Ethel Reinhold reading the 97th Psalm for the devotions. The inspirational verse taken from Society 10's Collection of Thought gems advised: "Whoever you are: Be noble. Whatever you do: Do well. Whenever you speak: Speak kindly. Give Joy wherever you dwell."

Members of the Society are taking orders for the one-pound fruitcake. Orders may be phoned to Mrs. Abram M. Miller, 1048

West Roseville Road, at 397-0514. Cakes will also be available at market stands at Central Market in November.

A general auction from donations of food and miscellaneous items from members was the entertainment highlight of the October meeting. Mrs. Loretta Shenk was auctioneer. The group was commended for their unanimous cooperation in support of the event.

Gifts of money were approved by members to the United Campaign, Big Brothers of America, and the Arthritis Foundation.

Members were reminded to contribute small gifts suitable for the elderly at Conestoga View to be used as prizes when the Society entertains there October 19.

Bazaar items were also requested for the County Convention on November 4 at the Lancaster School of the Bible. Items should be priced and sent in non-returnable containers.

More than 60 pieces were mended by members during the Sew-Day at Lancaster General Hospital on October 4.

The next meeting will be held in the Columbus Room, Holiday Inn, 1492 Lititz Pike. Frances LeFevre and Mrs. Blaine Stewart will be hostesses.

Society 20

Farm Women Society 20 met at the home of Mrs. Harry Teel, Oxford RD1, with Mrs. Mervin Anderson serving as cohostess.

Mrs. Harold Stokes, a member of the Advisory Board of the Solanco Family Health Center, gave a talk about the Center and answered questions. Mrs. William Gross, Quarryville, told of her recent trip to New Guinea, where her daughter and son-in-law are living.

The Society gave a donation to the Needlework Guild and also to the United Campaign. They will sponsor a girl at the Miss Solanco Pageant November 25.

Dr. Joyce Brothers will be the guest speaker at a seminar for Farm Women at the Hilton Inn April 3 and 4, it was announced.

The next meeting of the Society will be held at the home of Mrs. John Ferguson, Unionville, at 11 a.m. November 2. A covered dish luncheon will follow the business meeting.
