

Ice Follies at Hershey Next Week

Ice Follies "Spectrum '73," featuring Miss Trixie Schuba, recent Gold Medal winner at the 1972 Winter Olympic Games in Sapporo, Japan, is coming to Hersheypark Arena for a six-day engagement from Nov. 28 to Dec. 3.

The traditional family show, offering its own special appeal for everyone, will play nine shows in the Arena with performances scheduled for Tuesday through Friday at 8:10 p.m.; Saturday at 1, 5 and 9 p.m.; and Sunday at 2 and 6 p.m.

Ice Follies '73 heads for Hershey coming off nothing but excellent reviews from other arena dates it has played across the country. The Los Angeles Times perhaps summed it up best with the comment, "the pacing of this year's show is such that no one dares leave his seat for the duration of the show."

Joining Miss Schuba is an incomparable skating cast including such name performers as Richard Dwyer, Karen Kresge, Ricky Inglesi, Susan Berens, Christy Ito, and the United States Dance champions, Judy Schwomeyer and Jim Sladky.

An exciting young black skater, Atoy Wilson from Los Angeles, makes his debut with the 1973 edition. The first black ever to be featured as a solo performer with any major ice show, Wilson brings a new freshness and vitality to the art of free skating.

Ricky Inglesi is fast becoming the ice skating world's answer to young pop stars such as Donnie Osmond and David Cassidy. His strokes are vigorous and his figures are well-plotted, resulting in a certain charm that is all his own. He's the teeny-bopper idol of the Ice Follies presentation.

And of course Charles Schultz' lovable, floppy-eared beagle, Snoopy, is back again to sniff out the hearts of the youngsters in the crowd. Snoopy on ice has been a very successful Ice Follies adventure, and this season Snoopy is featured in a completely new routine.

The production numbers will again feature the Ice Follies, plus all the stars, with elaborate staging, costuming and lighting effects. Also, according to all reviews of the show, the best '73 musical score offers the best in contemporary sound and originality.

For sheer laughter, the ageless Mr. Frick will be on hand, joined by the Scarecrows, Funsters and Kevin Bupp. Another newcomer, David Comb, introduces his acrobatic skating routine that is unparalleled in skating circles.

It all boils down to the point, "you might have seen Ice Follies before, but you've never seen Ice Follies like this." Tickets for the show are $3.50, $4.50 and $5.50, with children 11 and under half-price for the Wednesday and Thursday performances only.

Horses really go for Purina. Now you can choose from two great Purina horse feeds—new Purina Horse Chow Checkers with built-in hay or Purina Omolene, a favorite of horsemen for almost 50 years.

Purina Horse Chow Checkers are a revolutionary idea in feeding horses. The hay is built in, eliminating the fuss and muss of hay. For those who prefer to feed hay there's the horsemen's standby—Purina Omolene.
