

Mrs. Greiner

She does all her own housework. She finds time to paint the inside of their house. She embroiders and makes crewel pillow tops.

Mrs. Greiner was a Cub Scout Den Mother a short time, before she had her market stand. She has been working with Manheim Rec Center for one-and-a-half years. She is there one night a week. The Jaycees of Manheim have given money and the merchants donated supplies and paint. Thirty-five young people came out to clean the interior of the VFW Building and again to paint. It is now ready for opening and will provide a place in the evenings for the young people to be to themselves and relax. The center will have ping pong, a juke box, snack bar, books, pool table, chess and checkers.

Sandy, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Metz of Manheim was born in Alexandria, Louisiana and grew up in Florida. She graduated from Palm Beach High School. There she specialized in art, science and music. She sang in their top-rated choir.

Robert, the son of Mrs. Mary Greiner, was born and raised in Manheim and graduated from Manheim Central High School. He works for T & B Electric in Manheim. He has just finished the basement of their home.

Greiners have three children. Robbie is 11 and attends Steigel Elementary School. He has a paper route in Manheim. He gets up at 5:30 a.m. week days and 4:30 a.m. Sundays to deliver papers. His father takes him to deliver 130 Sunday papers. His mother helps him when it's stormy on week days. He traps for muskrats. He likes to target shoot and likes baseball, football and wrestling. He was in Boy Scouts. He's an animal lover. He has had as pets a garter snake, iguana (lizard), chameleons, rabbits, chickens and a cat.

Tina is nine and attends Steigel Elementary School. She is taking baton twirling. She is in Girl Scouts.

Michelle is four-and-a-half years old and attends Zion Lutheran Church Nursery School.

Mr. and Mrs. Greiner belong to Zion Lutheran Church, Manheim. Sandy bowled last year in the WIBC Women's league.

She collects sea shells, oriental china pieces, post cards and charms. She has 200 or more post cards and over 50 charms.

Greiners do a lot of traveling. They started out camping in a tent. Now they have a camper. They often travel 400 miles a day. They don't like to stay long at one place when they travel. They have traveled from Portland, Maine to Key West, Florida and as far west as Salt Lake City, Utah. They have been in two Canadian provinces. Some places of interest they have been to are the Bad Lands, Craters of the Moon, Yellowstone, Pikes Peak, the Great Smokies and the Everglades.

Sandy likes to cook. She says "I like to try new things." Here are some of her favorite recipes.
