

Ice Capades Performance Promises Family Entertainment

Ice Capades, 1973, in its Big 33rd edition filled with new faces and fresh ideas, will open at Hersheypark Arena for 16 performances from February 8 to February 18, except for Monday, February 12.

Headlining this year's skating cast and making their professional debut are Jo Jo Starbuck and Ken Shelly, three times U.S. National Pair champions and fourth place finishers in the 1972 Winter Olympics Pair competition.

Both Starbuck and Shelley perform a featured solo number in addition to their two brilliant pair skating exhibitions. Shelley is also the 1972 U. S. National Singles Men champion—only the second man in ice skating history to hold two titles in the same year. His captivating, show-stopping performance to "Fiddler On The Roof" is one of the greatest solos in ice show history.

And Jo Jo Starbuck is the latest "Sweetheart On Ice" if there ever was one. The 20-year-old pert, blue-eyed blond will celebrate her 21st birthday during this year's Hersheypark Arena Ice Capades run—and you'll never guess what day—February 14, Valentine's Day. Certainly a fitting day of birth for Miss Starbuck.

But Starbuck and Shelly are only the beginning. The show opens with a lavish production number entitled, "S Wonderful," saluting George and Ira Gershwin, and introducing the lovely new Ice Capades star Adelle Boucher, as well as the adagio team of Peter Gordon and Barbara Wilson.

Other super-production numbers on tap for this year's show include, "Lidsville," a kiddie number full of weird and wonderful hats featuring acrobatic-skater David Sadleir; "Celebration," capturing the emotional intensity of a deep-

South tent revival; "Atlantis," starring Japanese skater Sashi Kuchiki moving with skates on fire to the musical score from "Shaft;" "Sentimental Journey," featuring the Frantic 40's, the Fabulous 50's, and the Swinging 60's, and finally, "Say It With Music," a salute to the sounds of the Big Band era with a special tribute to Louis Armstrong.

For the best in Ice show comedy, there's the ageless

Freddie Trenkler, the team of Hans and Pepe, the badminton-on-ice antics of the incomparable Hugh Forgie and his partner Shirley Marie, and Ruppert's Bears, who seem to be kissing somebody every time they turn around.

Returning with Ice Capades 1973 is the fascinating Italian skater Anna Galmarini, who has a style unmistakably all her own and more exciting each time you see it.

Add to all of this an original musical score that takes a backseat to none and you have what makes for a complete family entertainment evening.
