

State to Auction Cars & Trucks

Frank C. Hilson, Pennsylvania's property and supplies secretary, this week announced a public sale of 240 cars and trucks at auction in Harrisburg, July 12.

The auction, to be held at the state garage, 22nd and Forster Sts., will include Buick, Ford, Matador and Plymouth passenger cars; Ambassador, Chevrolet, Dodge, GMC and Jeep station wagons and pickup trucks, and some International trucks.

The auction is open to dealers, the general public and the employees of the Commonwealth or their relatives, with the exception of employes or agents of the Department of Property and Supplies and their relatives.

Prospective bidders must register before the start of the auction. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. at the site of the sale, on the date of the sale. Sale begins at 10:00 a.m.

All vehicles are offered on a "where is, as is" basis and no refunds or adjustments will be made.

Hilton said a security deposit of $25 must be paid by the successful bidder immediately after each vehicle is auctioned and the balance must be paid within five days.

FEED LETTER

Pioneer - Nutrena

For many years, the Hales & Hunter Co. sold feed under the brand names of Pioneer and Red Comb. Many farmers felt quite comfortable with those names. I'm sure that many of our friends will be saddened to learn that these names will now be replaced by another. In 1969 the company was bought by Cargill Inc., who also sells feed under the brand name of Nutrena. For awhile after we became part of the family it was best to keep the old Pioneer and Red Comb names. Now however, using two names to sell the same feed is becoming, not only bothersome, but costly. All literature tags, bags, and supplies bearing a trade name, had to be made twice, once for each name. It was added expense that didn't add to the value of the feed. Now, we'll both have the same name. Since Nutrena had more mills, and was known over a larger area, that's the name we'll all use.

You may wonder about the feeds themselves. Well, we've been selling the same feeds for the past four years, so there is nothing to change there. Some of the feeds now sold under either name were only developed after the merger, and became available to both groups at the same time. Feeds like the blender feeds for high moisture programs, the hog mixer program, Vitality Horse feed, and the pig pre-starter which has been improved twice since 1969.
