

Talent, Queens Climax 4-H Achievement Day

the talent contest. Sandy was accompanied at the piano by her 11-year-old sister Suzanne. A student at Hempfield High School where she sings in the chorus, she has been in 4-H for six years.

Second place in the talent competition was captured by Phyllis Kreamer who played a coronet solo accompanied with piano. Third place was an amusing monologue delivered by Shirley Herr.

The final event of the day was choosing a Junior and a Senior Queen. There were five contestants in each category.

Marcy Bomberger, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bomberger, Elm, was crowned Senior 4-H Queen. Cindy Charles, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Charles, Mount Joy, was named Junior Queen in the junior competition.

Miss Bomberger, a top winner in the 4-H Lancaster County Dress Revue for two years, is a member of the Penryn-Elm 4-H Club. She was asked, "What did you encounter in 4-H?" She is a student at Manheim Central High School.

Miss Charles is a third-year sewing member of the Mount Joy 4-H Club. The question she had to answer was, "What does 4-H mean to you?" She is a student at Donegal High School.

The five junior and five senior finalists were judged on appearance, speaking ability, poise and personality. Other candidates in the senior division were Mary Hale, 591 Valley View Drive, New Holland, Garden Spot Club; Geraldine Kauffman, Columbia RD1, Mount Joy Club; Linda Kauffman, Elizabethtown RD1, Holstein Club, and Barbara Kenyon, 1818 Northbrook Drive, Lancaster, Boots and Saddles Club.

Junior finalists were Liz Abel, Quarryville, Rough Riders Club; Marty Burkins, Holtwood RD1, Red Rose Baby Beef Club; Dawn Greider, Mount Joy, Boots and Saddles Club, and Dawn Webb, Manheim RD3, Penryn-Elm Club.

The 10 finalists were chosen in preliminary competition from 34 junior candidates and 23 senior candidates nominated by individual county clubs.

Jane Gregory, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gregory, Lititz RD1, took the best-of-show prize in food competition with pineapple cinnamon buns. Preparing the recipe took two and one-half hours of preparation before the show, but the time was well spent as she placed the highest ever in her seven years of 4-H work.

Christine Erb, Mount Joy RD1, took reserve honors in the food competition. Other winners in the various food categories were Nancy Lefever, Oxford RD1; Kelly Landis, Lititz RD1; Luann Martin, Stevens; Wendy Huber, Conestoga RD1, and Karen Huber, Conestoga RD1.

Receiving blue ribbons in clothing categories were: Susan Howell, New Holland RD2; Donna Warfel, Conestoga; Jeanne Henry; Julia Sourbeer, Conestoga RD1; Wendy Huber, Conestoga RD1; Laura Wunderly; Kim Harsh; Shelly Stekervetz, Conestoga RD2.

In the handyman competition, Gregory Schell, Lititz RD1, captured the blue ribbon. His entry was a walnut-stained oak desk which took over 30 hours of work.

Carl Thomas, Millersville RD1, took the blue ribbon in vegetables for the second year straight. His display was a basket of nine various vegetables.

Other winners in various categories were: Fred Hertzler, Kinzer RD1, flowers; Adam Mays, 1212 Nissley Road, Lancaster, entomology; Mike Curry, 76 Linda Avenue, Lancaster, geology; Darwin Nissley, Mount Joy RD1, photography, and Keith Wolgemuth, Mount Joy RD1, rabbits

A highlight of 4-H Achievement Day was the crowning of Marcy Bomberger as Senior 4-H Queen by last years queen, Nancy Yuninger.

In the FFA tractor driving contest, Dennis Brubaker out-classed the field with a very low score of 65 points. In tractor driving the object is to avoid making mistakes, because points are added for each goof. Thus a low score is needed to win. Second in the FFA battle was Jeff Heisey.

Dale Mulfair won the 4-H tractor driving contest while Jay Kreider came in second.

FARM CREDIT

IT DOESN'T HAVE TO BE JUST THE TWO OF YOU FACING THE FUTURE.

The needs of your family are never-ending. Equipment. Home appliances. Feed and seed and fertilizer. Doctor bills. College educations. Trucks and tractors. Remodeling the house.

The people at Farm Credit understand farm families and their special needs. After all, they've been working with families like yours for years. They work with you to help you reach your goals. And it's good to know that they believe in constructive credit . . . the kind that helps you get further ahead instead of deeper in debt.

So the two of you don't have to go it alone. Not when there's a Farm Credit man who's a real professional when it comes to helping farm families like yours.
