Junior market lamb competition at this week's Ephrata Fair was dominated by the Herr Family. Barbara Herr, left, took grand champion honors with her Dorset, Elizabeth had the reserve grand, a Suffolk, and Christian showed the top on-foot animal in the carcass lamb contest. All are children of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Herr, Narvon RD2.

Russell Kline took his accustomed place in the winner's circle when he accepted the grand champion trophy in the Ephrata Fair Hog Show on Thursday.
