Champion New Holland Steer
Sells for $1.06 a pound

The grand champion steer at the New Holland Farmer's Fair topped all records this year as it was sold for $1.06 a pound at the New Holland Sales Stables, immediately following the shows.

The 1,108-pound crossbred steer netted Cindy Yoder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Yoder, Morgantown RD1, $1,174.48 plus a five-dollar bill presented by the stables to each entry.

Cindy's high-priced steer was auctioned to Norman Kolb, Pitney Road, a livestock broker.

The reserve champion steer of the show was owned by Gerald Eberly, East Earl RD1, His 1,060-pound Hereford was bought by Gordon Fritz, a Smoketown livestock dealer, for 61 cents a pound.

The reserve champion Hereford was shown by Cathy Martin, New Holland RD1. The champion Angus steer was shown by Lisa Hoover, Gap RD1, which brought 56 cents a pound from Harold Hess, representing the Farmers First National Bank of Intercourse.

Joe Weaver, Gap RD1, showed the reserve Angus steer and Gordon Hoover, Gap RD1, had the reserve champion crossbred.

Winners in the showmanship competition were Linda High, Lancaster, first; Jeff Martin, second; Cindy Yoder, third; Richard Groff, Leola, fourth.

Cathy Martin placed first in the fitting competition with Cindy Yoder finishing second; Linda High, third; and Gerald Eberly, fourth.

The grand champion hog of the show, also held Thursday afternoon, was owned by 12-year-old Thomas W. Ruoss, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Frank Ruoss, Ephrata RD2.

The proud young sixth-grader at Brownstown Elementary School has had a quite successful year with his hogs. Not only did he win the showmanship award at New Holland, but also he won the title at Ephrata and Manheim.

The judge praised the 205 pound Duroc gilt for her trimness and length.

The reserve champion hog was shown by Susan Martin, New Holland RD2.

Feed Boosters

any time of the year

Starting cattle. No matter what time of year, put them on a good feed with AUREO S 700* for 28 days. Maintain gains in the presence of shipping fever!

Finishing cattle. After 28 days put cattle on a feed with AUREOMYCIN (70 mg. per head per day). AUREOMYCIN increases gains, improves feed efficiency, helps prevent liver abscesses, bacterial diarrhea and foot rot.

This season use the 700/70 program. Get back $6 to $8 for every dollar you invest. See your feed supplier!

*American Cyanamid Company's trademark for a premix of AUREOMYCIN® chlortetracycline and SULMET® sulfamethazine. Withdraw 7 days before slaughter.
