

REMEMBER
BY THE OLD TIMER

From Mrs. Frank Drob'sh, New Preston, Conn.: I remember mother baking bread in a large range. She had nine children. The baked bread was brushed with butter as soon as it left the oven. By that time, she had pies ready, placing them in 15" medium blue enameled pans.

Three barrels of apples and potatoes were stored for winter in the cellar — plus a barrel of sauerkraut.

Our unpainted chairs and kitchen table were scrubbed with hot soap suds each Saturday before the floor got the same treatment.

Papa, as we called him, played his violin after supper while we danced around and mother sang.

My doll was stuffed with excelsior — the hands, feet, head and shoulders were of china, with painted features and hair.

A kerosene lamp hung high on the kitchen wall, inside a wrought iron container. A tin plate behind the lamp served to focus the light on the stove, while cooking, on the table while eating — or it could be swiveled around to light the pantry.
