Farm Women Approve Resolutions at 55th Annual Convention

Resolutions approved by the Society of Farm Women of Pennsylvania at their 55th annual convention in Harrisburg on Tuesday were presented to Governor Milton J. Shapp for consideration and support. The Governor and Mrs.

Shapp "dropped in" on the 555 representatives of the state Farm Women Organization at the banquet held in the Penn Harris Motor Inn prior to the business meeting, when the resolutions were approved.

The resolutions are for the purpose of civic and personal betterment, dealing with pollution, highway safety, toy safety, honest labeling and reforms in the prison care of women in regards to health care and toilet facilities, especially in state prisons.

Specifically, on highway safety, the Farm Women of Pennsylvania urge that the Pa. Dept. of transportation replace "yield" signs with "stop" signs on roads that carry fast or heavy traffic. Also the women advocate a uniform traffic code applicable in all states, to regulate such things as speed, weight of trucks, width of load, and transportation hours for outside or dangerous cargo.

In addition to the Governor, heads of the state Senate and House of Representatives received a copy of the resolutions along with the Pa. Safety Committee and Department of Transportation. Mrs. S. Lee Richards, president of the state group further encouraged each delegate to serve as a committee of one to tell one person and especially to send a copy to local newspapers.

In other business, Mrs. Ronald Chronister of Adams County was elected treasurer replacing Mrs. Merle Baughman of Franklin County; Mrs. Alva Berkey, Cambria County was elected director replacing Mrs. Robert Bender, also of Cambria County, who served as chaplain.

Other officers of the state Farm Women include Mrs. S. Lee Richards, Fulton Co., President. Mrs. D. Wilbur Erb, Dauphin Co., first vice president and Mrs. John N. Hess, Columbia RD2, Lancaster Co., 2nd vice president.
