

Lancaster Mennonite Sale Nets $21,271

A yearling heifer donated by Eby Hershey was the top seller at last Saturday's Auction at Lancaster Mennonite High.

The heifer, amid flashing photographers' lights and staccatoed auctioneering, showed little signs of fear while the bids climbed above $2,000. The bidding finally stopped at $2,150. Lloyd Kreider, Cochranville Badger dealer, became the proud owner.

Other notable items sold at the auction were over 40 handmade quilts selling for a combined total of $4,662.50.

The total auction sales for the day climbed to $14,271.16 by late Saturday evening. Along with that amount was a pledge of $7,000 by a group of interested persons bringing the total gross auction proceeds to $21,271.16.

Though every kind of weather imaginable from snow, to sleet, to rain and high winds was experienced on Saturday, an unusually large crowd attended the auction. Fund Drive '74, of which the Country Auction was a major part, has netted to date a total of $46,259.66—$6,000 over the goal of $40,000—and the money is still trickling in.

This heifer proved to be the top money maker at last Saturday's benefit auction for Lancaster Mennonite High School. Lloyd Kreider, left, paid $2150 for the heifer, out-
