5 beaten egg yolks
1 teaspoon vanilla
Beat egg whites and cream of tartar until stiff. Slowly beat in half of the sugar. Sift flour, cocoa, and other half of sugar and blend into egg yolks. Add vanilla and fold into white mixture.

Line pan with waxed paper. Bake at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes. When baked, loosen cake from edges of pan and turn out on a towel.

While hot, roll cake and towel from narrow end. When cool, unroll cake, remove towel and spread one of your favorite icings over cake and roll again.

Raspberry Jam or Drink

4 cups raspberry juice
1 cup vinegar
5 cups sugar

Boil 20 minutes then put in jars and seal. When ready to use add water to suit your taste. I like to add more water to make a drink of it than I do to make jam of it. Use the juice of black raspberries as the red are too sour.

To make a jam of red raspberries:
2 quarts of water
1 pint of fresh red rasp-

berries or frozen raspberries
Sugar to suit taste
Cook water. Then add clear jell or tapioca to make it thick. If you use clear jell, do not add it dry as you would for tapioca or it will get lumpy. Add a little water to make a thin paste then add it slowly to the mixture. When it is boiling, remove from the heat and add the raspberries.

Sausage Stew

1½ links smoked sausage - take off skin-cut in pieces-fry on both sides-drain off fat.

Add:

1 can tomatoes
1 package onion soup mix
several carrots, cut thin
½ cup celery, cut fine
½ package hash brown potatoes.

Cook until tender. Thicken with cornstarch and water (about 2 tablespoons).

Spam Polynesian

Saute:

½ medium onion
½ green pepper

Add:

1 chicken bouillon cube
½ cup water
½ cup vinegar
½ cup brown sugar
1 tablespoon cornstarch
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1 small can pineapple chunks

1 can mandarin oranges or 3 fresh orange sections.

1 can spam - slice and fry pieces (I prefer smoky spam)

Serve over rice. I put rice on platter, pour cooked ingredients on top of rice, then place fried spam slices on top.

Check Party Food Safety

If you are planning a party, Extension specialists at The Pennsylvania State University remind you to also plan for food safety.

Arrange to have enough large serving dishes so you can bring the cold food from the refrigerator or the hot food from the oven frequently and replace dishes on the table.

Check to see if you have enough dishes and utensils for eating - the disposable kind may be better for a larger group. Hasty washing of dishes often means dishes, and utensils are being used again when they are not properly washed.

refrigerator space you'll need to store foods and don't pile so much warm food in the refrigerator at one time that it raises the temperature above 40 degrees. When a refrigerator is overcrowded, the Extension specialists explain that the temperature may rise enough to cause increased bacterial action.

Ida Risser

until next spring.

xxx
Today's society is quite mobile and my family is no exception. My oldest daughter, Nancy, just spent a week touring Mexico. My son Jeff just returned from flying to Iowa to participate in the National Soil Judging Contest, as a member of the Penn State team. Judy plans to fly to the West Coast this summer. Our niece and her family have flown from Germany for a month's visit. Without constant visits, letters, and phone calls it is difficult to maintain a feeling of unity in a family when they are scattered across the nation and the world.

So far the 19 Shreiner grandchildren and 15 Risser grandchildren have achieved a close relationship through the annual summer picnics and the various Christmas parties. Hope they continue.
