

Grandstand Performances Lined Up For York Fair

The five evening performances have been lined up and supporting acts contracted for according to an announcement made by Fair President, John A. Dempwolf. The fair will celebrate its 119th season on September 10th and run through September 14th.

"We have endeavored to bring the fair over an exciting five evenings of top entertainment," Dempwolf explained. "The performers who will appear all have super star ratings and the reviews and shows supporting them are of equal quality."

The Loretta Lynn Show will be the starting attraction on Tuesday, September 10th. Loretta Lynn is country-music's top female vocalist. She has won many awards in her years in the entertainment business including a two year title as top female vocalist from the Country Music Association. In 1974, she was included as one of the twenty women in the most celebrated categories by the Gallup poll.

Miss Lynn will be ably assisted by male vocalist Kenny Starr, a young man whose rise to fame as a singer is rapidly being matched by his reputation as a song writer. The Coal Miners will provide the instrumentals.

The Little Angels, a group of 32 young Korean children will also appear on the first Tuesday. This group of young people will sing and dance in the Korean fashion giving a show that has pleased hundreds of thousands all over the world. They have appeared before the Queen of England, in almost every European capital and, of course, in almost every major city in the U.S.A.

The Little Angels group will also appear as a fill-in act during Wednesday night's show. Famed Bobby Vinton will star in his famous nightclub and concert routine.

Vinton, who is known as the "most successful unknown" in show business has won the admiration of fair goers throughout the country. He is a one man show and will treat his audience to songs, dancing, mimicing and acting in a performance that is most personable. Vinton uses every square inch of the big stage, then deserts the footlights and meets his audience face to face. He becomes a part of the audience and, by the time his lively routine is finished, he makes everyone attending feel like they have just shook his hand.

Thursday evening's performance will bring the now-famous Tony Orlando and Dawn show to the footlights. Tony Orlando, the vocalist and leader sings the famous, peak selling "Tie a Yellow Ribbon 'Round the Ole Oak Tree" just to warm you up, then with his backup singers Joyce Vincent Wilson and Telma Hopkins launches into a routine that takes you back to vaudeville.

The group will come to York after completing a successful four week stint as summer replacements for the Sonny and Cher Show. The entertainment industry rumors that with their great success in the summer "trial", they may be considered for far more exposure for the fall season.

The Tony Orlando and Dawn show will also feature the world famous Mike Curb Congregation, a group of 19 young singers who deliver your favorite songs from gospel to pop in a manner so zestful and full of youth that they win their audiences hearts no matter where they appear. They will also appear, for a second appearance, on Friday evening as a second act to the Roy Clark Show.

Their appearance with Clark should make the Friday evening performance the biggest night of music that York has heard or seen for a long, long time. Clark will bring pretty Diana Trask to do the female voices of the songs that make her a leading contender to the title of Miss Country-Western. The famous Spurrrows will double as instrumentalists for Clark and as a supporting act. The Spurrrows is a group of some 14 fine, young musicians, singers and performers who have been traveling the circuits for many years. While they are scheduled with the Roy Clark Show, they have, in the past, conducted full shows of their own. Variety considers them and their act, one that must be seen.

Saturday, September 14th, will finale the fair and to celebrate the closing of the 119th season will be "The Ten Greatest Stars of the Lawrence Welk Show". Everybody's favorite TV show will be on hand to give its audience two hours of music in the famous champagne music style. On hand will be Myron Floren, Jack Imel, Joe Feeney, Charlotte Harris, Bob Ralston, Cissy King & Bobby Burgess, Guy and Ralna and Arthur Duncan.
