asked you difficult questions, even some involving the anatomy of the horse." Cherrri also traveled to Cameron County this summer for a 4-H Exchange trip where she represented the County in the Horse education area.

As a member of the 4-H County Council, Cherrri has served on various committees and helped plant flower bulbs for 4-H week. She also helped to make a tape promoting 4-H for National 4-H week.

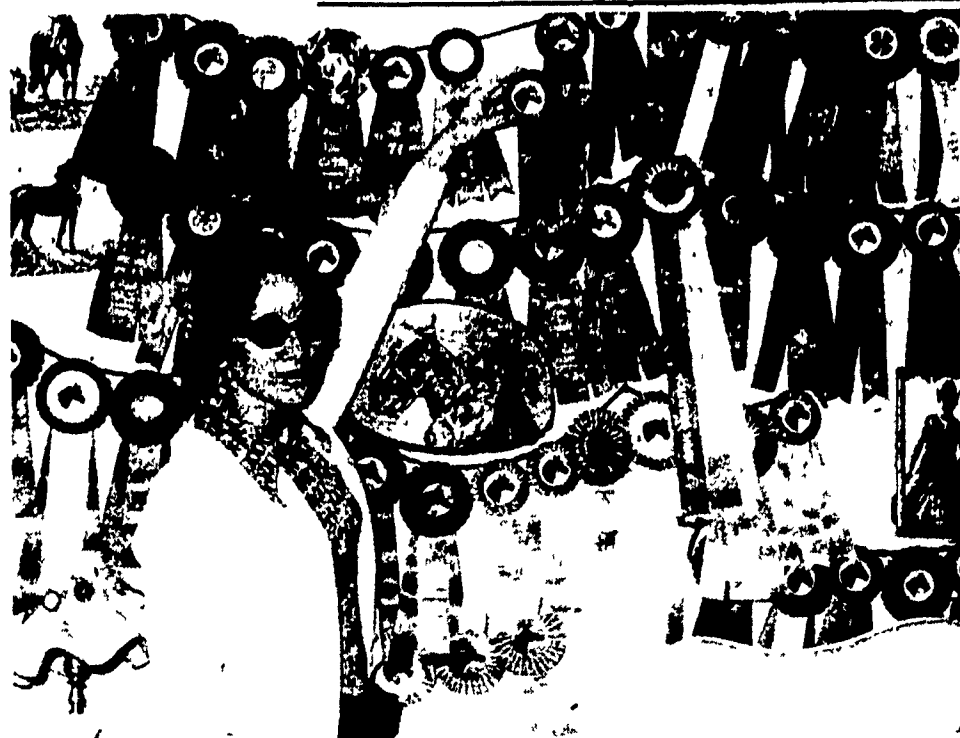

During the summer months, Cherrri traveled to many shows with her registered quarter horse where she competed in the western pleasure classes.

In almost all of the shows that included Marietta, Newberrytown, Columbia and the Lebanon Show, Cherrri brought a bushful of blue ribbons home.

Cherrri has also participated in the District and State 4-H Horse shows. Another award which Cherrri is proud of is the reserve grand champion honor that she captured for her club-scrapbook at the annual achievement show.

At school, Cherrri is a member of the Pep Club and enjoys attending sports events.

Cherrri will still be serving as a teen leader of Silver Spurs over the winter months, as the Horse Club continues its programs and projects throughout the entire year. Her duties will keep her busy but Cherrri takes it all in stride. In fact, after our interview with her, Cherrri bounded off to the stables to give the blacksmith a helping hand in shoeing her horse.

Cherrri lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gochbauer at Centerville Road in Lancaster.

Trade School Receiving Students

The Thaddeus Stevens Trade School, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, is now receiving applications for admissions for the coming school year, beginning September, 1975. Stevens is a free trade school maintained and operated by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the training and education of orphans and other deserving boys who meet the standards of needs established by the Board of Directors and the Commonwealth.

It is the purpose of the school to provide free of charge room and board as well as shop and classroom instruction. The courses offered are approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

A small number of tuition students who do not meet the standards of need are accepted each year. These students must submit a TUITION APPLICATION which can be obtained from the Admissions Office.

Practical Courses of Instruction

Two year courses are offered in the following trades: Electrical Construction, Electronics, Machine Shop Practice, Printing, Automotive Mechanics, Brick Masonry, Baking, Cabinet Making, Carpentry, Architectural Drafting, Mechanical Drafting, Plumbing, Commercial Sheet Metal, and Auto Body Repair.

Detailed information about any of the courses offered may be obtained from the school by writing to the Admissions Office, Stevens Trade School, Lancaster, Pennsylvania 17602.

Applications are accepted for consideration from any orphan or other worthy boy who is a resident of Pennsylvania, who has passed his sixteenth birthday but not yet reached his twentieth at time of admission to the school. Advanced training is offered to those students who have previously finished high school.

Equal opportunity is given to all qualified residents of Pennsylvania regardless of race, color, creed, or national origin.

LARRY GROFF

Larry Thought You Might Like To Know.

When you buy a new Ford tractor at Lancaster Ford he will personally guarantee that it has been completely checked and ready to go. This means there are 35 items checked and a dynamometer test made before you get the tractor. You will also get a horsepower sticker showing the horsepower achieved on the dynamometer. In addition, when you have 50 hours on the tractor, we will again make over 30 checks to assure you of continued trouble free operation. Larry says, "Ask for your pre-delivery chart and if we have missed any of these checks, I make this pledge to you: I will treat you and your wife to dinner at your favorite restaurant. At Lancaster Ford Tractor, we believe you deserve the best, and the friendly people at Lancaster Ford are dedicated to this purpose."
