

Farm Women Societies

Society 6

Farm Women Society 6 met March 1 at the home of Margaret Haines. Esther Frey and Katie Brandt were co-hostesses.

The meeting opened with group singing and devotions by Miss Haines. She read a poem about childhood memories of springtime and Psalms 123. Members responded to roll call by giving an Easter Bible verse.

Reports were given of the food stand at the sale of Rhoda Risser, and plans for the sale of Mae Gantz on April 12. The State Farm Women presented an emblem for one of our members, Anna Mary Miller, who is in the Mennonite Home. Members are invited to the home of Vera Shonk any time after 9:00 o'clock on April 1 to make bed pads. Bring lunch and any old sheets that could be used for the pads.

The program was a humorous talk by Nora Garber of New Holland, who spoke on "Talking and Loving Your Plants into Growing." Necessary ingredients are patience, persistence, and pride.

The bus is not yet full for the trip to the Meyersdale Maple Festival on March 22. Members or non members may call either 367-3082 or 367-5147 for information.

Society 7

Farm Women Society 7 met at the home of Mrs. William Kinzer on Feb. 8. Devotions were led by Mrs. Samuel Wenger. It was announced that the county project for the year will be to buy a piano for the Farm and Home Center.

Mr. Jack Loose of the Lancaster Historical Society showed slides of Lancaster city and county dating from 1802 to the present time.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Ira Mast, Mrs. Paul Skiles, Mrs. Charles Rohrer and Mrs. Samuel Wenger.

The next meeting will be held at the Presbyterian Church in Paradise on March 8 at 1:00 p.m. A covered dish luncheon will be served to guests, the county officers and Society 24.

Lester Keen will present a program on his collection of lamps.

Quarryville on March 18 at 9:00 a.m.

Current events were discussed by Irene Shank, Dorothy Huber and Verna Shirk. An auction was held and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held March 27 at the home of Anna Herr.

Society 24

Society of Farm Women 24 met February 26, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. Calvin Wenger, Lancaster. Nineteen members and their husbands were present at a covered dish and game night. Roll call was "How you met your husband."

The ways and means committee announced the spring rummage sale will be April 8, at Bareville Fire Co. from 8:00 a.m. to 3 p.m. Society 7 has invited the ladies of Society 24 to a luncheon at 1 p.m. March 8, at the Leacock Presbyterian Church. All members are urged to attend.

The next regular meeting will be March 26, at the home of Mrs. Jacob Garber, New Holland. The Program will be on safety.

Society 26

Farm Women Society 26 held their last meeting at the home of Mrs. Howard Sipling, Marietta R1. Mrs. Robert Summy was co-hostess.
