Along with her duties as president of the Broken Bit 4-H Horse Club, Natalie Immel shows and trains horses. One of her favorites is a 4-year-old Quarter Horse.

Is Her Hobby

recently completing a booth exhibit for the 4-H expo.

A member of the County Horse Judging team for the past four years, Natalie has competed at 4-H State Days and has placed high individually in many contests.

Natalie has done numerous demonstrations for the Broken Club and has done promotional work for the 4-H by preparing radio tapes.

Along with traveling on the show circuit this summer, Natalie will be presiding at the Broken Bit meetings. When asked just what duties she would be taking on, Natalie replied with a smile, "we have quite a few activities planned for the coming weeks including a trail ride and horse show."

"I'll be helping with those as well as fund raising projects."

The Broken Bit Club is a family affair for the Immels, as Natalie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Immel are leaders along with Robert Gregory.

Natalie explained that her riding had come naturally, as her parents have always been interested in horses.

"My parents had horses for quite some time and I just naturally started riding when I was young."

Natalie's success as an equestrienne and trainer is well evidenced by the numerous trophies, plaques and ribbons that decorated the Immel's home.

Although the county miss rides in many prestigious shows, she still believes that her favorite is the County 4-H round-up.

"I'd have to say that the County 4-H Round-up was my favorite since I could compete with my friends, we always have a good time."

County shows as well as many out of town events will soon be taking place although Natalie's one priority will be graduating from high school as well as finishing her cosmetology program at a county vo-tech school.

But when summer rolls around Natalie will be off on the show circuit again, riding and training her Quarter Horses - a hobby she'd like as a career.
