

Poultry Profits can start at the kitchen table...

... That's where it started for Noah Wenger, a long time user of Pennfield Feeds. Here's what he says — "A lot of people come and try to sell you feed and sometimes it costs less, but that's what you get, feed. You buy the feed and it is delivered and that's it. With Pennfield, I get service and that's important. Jack Renshaw, my serviceman, comes to see me regularly. When I have a problem I give him a call. Sometimes I call and get him out of bed in the morning and he always helps me out."

A lot of feed salesmen know a little bit about all areas of the business ... a little bit about steers, a little bit about poultry, but they don't specialize. With Pennfield, I have a specialist. They are right on top of the latest medicines and treatments. If there is disease going around that I couldn't possibly know about, Jack is right here to let me know in time to do something to prevent it.

I really value Pennfield service which means so much more to my business than just being sold feed."

We'd like to talk to you — around your kitchen table — and discuss your poultry feeding program. Give us a call.
