

York teams take four first places

Editor's Note: York County's 4-H Achievement Day participants at University Park did considerably better than was reported in last week's issue. They came through the activities, held in mid August, with four first place teams. Results furnished to us a week ago from the University's Extension Service office made no mention of that fact.

With 60 4-H'ers participating, York County had one of the largest groups of qualifiers for the 4-H Achievement Days which Straight shooting all the way down the line earned these archers the first place team title at the 4-H Achievement Days held earlier this month at the Penn State campus. The York County team made a clean

York County 4-H members were first place winners in the Dairy Judging Contest held at State 4-H Achievement Days. From left are: Cindy Rutter, high individual in the contest, York; Paul Knight, Airville, Cindy Knight 11th individual, Airville and Leonard Greek, 8th individual, Delta; and Lee Jinks, State 4-H Leader.

Thousands Vie for Recipe Prizes

American women love to cook and bake—but they hate calories

Sugartwin, the low calorie granulated sugar substitute made by Alberto-Culver Company, proved this by attracting thousands of recipes in a contest that required only the use of white and/or brown Sugar-twin

Twenty-five women from 18 states were selected as winners and each received a beautiful four-piece silver coffee service valued at $350

Recipes in any category were eligible as long as they were made with Sugartwin, which not only looks, pours, measures and tastes like sugar but has 91

per cent fewer calories and is a money-saver as well

Contestants were asked to submit recipes in any category — pies, cookies, cakes, beverages, non-dessert items, toppings, breads—any dish or drink made with Sugartwin. Culinary creativity was welcomed. Recipes were judged for originality, taste and overall appeal.

The 25 winning recipes included Date nut cake, stuffed cabbage, caraway green beans, orange Julius, chewy Cheddar cut-ups, mock pecan pie, brownies, a wide variety of cookies, nut bread, pork balls in sauerkraut nest and coconut macaroons

Sugartwin recipe prize.
