

The Clyde Brubaker family of Lancaster did well in the breeding sheep show at the York Fair. Among their winnings were these Hampshires — the champion ewe and ram.

The breeding sheep show among Mellott's flock provide both the ram and ewe champion. Oxford competitors saw Emil

ts sheep shows

had the third place flock, as well as second place get of sire; and second place two ewe lambs.

Hampshires

The Clyde Brubakers of Lancaster and Nevin Zerby of Tipton shared most of the top honors in this breed.

The Brubakers had the champion ram, and champion ewe, in addition to first place in: 1-2 year old ram, two ram lambs, ewe lamb, breeders young flock, and get of sire.

The Zerby's showed the reserve champion ram, and reserve champion ewe, as well as first places in: ram lamb, 1-2 year old ewe, two yearling ewes, two ewe lambs, pen of lambs, and flock.

Linda Ebaugh of Delta R2 had the first place two yearling ewes.

In the flock judging, Brubaker had second; 3. Steven Ebersole, York R3; 4. John Sorrels, Mt. Airy, Maryland; 5. Wayne Bankert, Red Lion.

Merino

It was no contest in this breed. Calvert Farm of Spraggs R2 took every first place.

Oxford

Emil Mellott of Needmore and Jay and Tom Runkle of Spring Mills shared all of the top places.

First places for Mellott included: 1-2 year old ram, champion ram, 1-2 year old ewe, ewe lamb, champion ewe, reserve champion ewe, two yearling ewes, two ewe lambs, pen of lambs, breeders young flock, get of sire, and flock.

The Runkles came up with first places in: ram lamb, reserve champion ram, and two ram lambs.

Rambouillet

No contest as Emil Mellott captured every ribbon and every first place.

Shropshire

The Edward Beall family of Germantown, Maryland came up with: champion and reserve champion ram, champion ewe, and first places in: 1-2 year old ram, ram lamb, two ram lambs, 1-2 year old ewe, ewe lamb, two yearling ewes, two ewe lambs, pen of lambs, breeders young flock get of sire, and flock.

Mark Ebaugh, Delta R2, showed the reserve champion ewe.

Southdown

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Zerby of Tipton had the champion ewe and lamb, as well as both reserve champions. They also took every first place in each class. Michelle Bankert of Red Lion R3 walked off with second place ribbons for every class except: ewe lamb (Nevin Zerby); two yearling ewes, (David Harpster, Boalsburg); pen of lambs, (David Harpster); get of sire, (David Harpster); and breeders young flock, (David Harpster).

Suffolk

Pine Haven Farm of Newville R1 showed the champion and reserve champion ram and the reserve champion ewe. Mrs. Milton Morgan of Lancaster exhibited the champion ewe of the breed.

First place winnings for Pine Haven Farm included:

Lancaster Farming Photos
by Dieter Krieg

1-2 year old ram, ram lamb, two ram lambs, pen of lambs, breeders young flock, get of sire and flock.

Other first place winners were: W. C. Myers and family, Bedford R3 in the 1-2 year old ewe class; Mrs. Milton Morgan in ewe lamb and two ewe lambs.

Other Breed

Lynn Cortey of Centre Hall took all first places.

The champion Shropshire ram and ewe at the York Fair this year were owned by Mr. and Mrs. Edward Beall of Germantown, Maryland.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevin Zerby of Tipton showed both the champion ram and champion ewe in the breeding sheep show for the Southdown breed. Ron Miller of State College serves as showman for the Zerby's and is pictured here with their champion ram.

Knight Holsteins dominate 4-H show

YORK - York County 4-Hers competed against each other at the York Fair, which began last Friday and lasts through today.

In the dairy show, Cindy Rutter of York and Barbara Kilgore of Airville were chosen as grand champion showman and grand champion fitter, respectively. Todd Rutter received the reserve grand champion showman ribbon, while its counterpart in the fitting contest went to Beverly Brown of Delta.

Following are the placings of the show:

Holstein Grand Champion

Woodbine Kate Milke, a five and a half year old daughter of Garberdale Burk Kate, exhibited by Cindy Knight of Woodbine Holsteins, Airville R2. This animal was also the senior champion.

Reserve Grand

Woodbine Ivanhoe Fancy, exhibited by George Knight III of Woodbine Holsteins, Airville R2, doubled as the reserve grand champion and reserve senior champion. She is a 12 year old daughter of Osbornedale Ivanhoe.

Junior Champion

Woodbine ANC Ivan Verena, shown by Paul Knight of Woodbine Holsteins, was chosen over Cindy Knight's Woodbine Revelation Florence, who became reserve junior champion. Paul's animal was a 23 month old daughter of Peters Farm ABC Ivanhoe, while his sister showed a daughter out of Round Oak Rag Apple Revelation.

Junior Calf

1. James P. Knight, Airville; 2. Peter King, Delta; 3. Alan Weaver; 4. Kelly Miller, SevenValleys; 5. Gary Welsh, East Berlin.

Intermediate Calf

1. Cindy Knight, Airville; 2. Tim Chronister; 3. Paul Knight, Airville; 4. Barbara Kilgore, Airville; 5. Patricia Greek, Delta.

Senior Calf

1. Mark Mummert, Dover; 2. Tommy Welsh; 3. Ricky Ramirez, East Berlin; 4. not listed; 5. David King, Delta.

Junior Yearling

1. Martin Krone, Glen Rock; 2. Beverly Brown, Delta; 3. Barbara Kilgore; 4.

[Continued on Page 25]

Others, from left to right are: Lucinda Wilson, champion Charolais; Jeff Sneemyer, champion Hereford; and Kathy Sunday, champion Angus.

The best tractor driver in the FFA tractor driving contest was Mark Wooden of Stewartstown R2. He is a member of the Kennard-Dale FFA chapter.