California
California is an outstanding grower of both herbs and olives. Natives of the state like to add a few rosemary leaves a bay leaf a hot chili pepper celery leaves and maybe some garlic to canned olives in olive oil and let it stand in the refrigerator for about three days giving it a good shake whenever they think about it

Five Patz servicemen from southeastern and central Pennsylvania recently completed an intensive four-day training session at the Patz Company, Pound, Wis. The men were introduced to new and existing Patz products, as well as service
