

New Holland promotes three

NEW HOLLAND — Three Sperry New Holland executives have been given new responsibilities in the area of manufacturing.

J. Nelson Harris, Sperry New Holland vice president for manufacturing, North America, has been named to the new position of vice president for manufacturing worldwide. His responsibilities will include all manufacturing operations in the firm's European, North American and Latin America - Far East divisions.

Theodore C. Jackson, presently general manager of Sperry New Holland's Lexington, Nebraska plant, has been promoted to replace Harris as vice president for manufacturing of the North American Division, according to H. G. McCarty, vice president and general manager, North American Division.

Succeeding Jackson as general manager of the Lexington plant will be William T. Kennedy III, presently manufacturing administration director at
