Me—the farmer.

I'm glad I'm a farmer.
 Sometimes I'm angry about being a farmer.
 And disappointed. Elated. Puzzled. Worried. And, I suppose, every emotion in the book.
 But I'm glad I'm a farmer.
 Because I know what I am. And what I feel.
 I feel I'm akin to my land and the things that grow on my land...
 And the sky over my land and the water that falls on it and flows through it...
 And the livestock that sustains itself upon my land...
 And the buildings that shelter me and my wife and our children and the machines that help to make my land fruitful.
 These are a bone-deep part of me.

As is sweat. Cloudburst. Drought. Repairs. Disease. Heartache. Market losses. And profits. Sowing. Reaping. And a hundred and one setbacks and successes, large and small, that other men may never know. But that I know. And am content with.
 Not because farming is easy. It isn't. Or because a farmer enjoys fame. He doesn't.
 Or because a farmer like me is a wealthy man. I am not.
 It's simply because I know what I am. And I know what I feel.
 I wouldn't have me any other way.
