

Junior Cooking Edition

Since Lancaster Farming asked for corn and other vegetable recipes for Junior Cooking Edition, a lot have come in. Thank you, Junior Cooks.

However, in case you didn't have time to send in your favorites as yet, don't worry, you still have a week to get them to us. As long as Lancaster Farming has the recipes by August 14, you can have your recipe printed.

This week's recipes are all delicious-sounding desserts which are perfect any time of the year, but most of them are especially good in the summer.

a program entitled, "Fashion Focus," by Doris Thomas, Lancaster County Extension home economist.

The main program during the afternoon was a lecture on the "Professional Way to Wake Up Your Make Up" by Marilyn Buck, model and instructor at Charming Model School in Scottsdale Plaza, Harrisburg.

Then came the awaited event — the Dress Revue Fashion Show and presentation of awards.

The theme for this year's regional dress revue was "Regional U.S.A.". The judges were Miss Kaye Allen, home economics teacher, Harrisburg Middle School; Marcia Lamoreaux, assistant manager of Joann's Fabrics, Colonial Park Mall; Lillian Kopp, home economist; Jane McCurdy, sales representative, Leiter Designer Fabrics; and Robin Neidig, home economics teacher, Middletown High School.

Society of Farm Women 24 met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Witmer, New Holland R3, for a family picnic. Approximately 25 members and their families enjoyed a covered dish meal.

Mrs. Jack Golston, president, held a very short meeting for the women while the children and husbands enjoyed games.

The August meeting will be held at Mrs. Lynn Smoker, Kinzers, and roll call will be "Your Horoscope sign?"
